Couple Celebrates Golden Anniversary

"Mrs. Clifford Rutter of Cleveland Heights, O. was in town recently for a very special occasion. Sixty years ago she introduced Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Anderson of Lowell Ct., Bloomfield Hills, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Nov. 21 at the Village Woman's Club. Hosts at the large reception were the couple's three daughters and their husbands: Mr. and Mrs. William Lambert, Jr. of Birmingham; the John B. Bennetts of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon W. Price of Bloomfield Hills. Cynthia, Sarah and Weldon Price, Jr. Donating the lounge where Mr. and Mrs. Anderson received was a pair of gift-framed pastels—1914 portraits of the bride pair. They were done by Farmington artist Shirley M. Ford, who also cupped the Andersons' wedding invitation, enlarged and mounted it on red velvet and framed it to match the pictures. ALTHOUGH THE Andersons moved to Birmingham in 1935, they have continued to attend Trinity United Church of Christ in Detroit, where Mr. Anderson is president of the Consistory. Members of the parish entertained at a reception for the couple following services Nov. 22.
