

Luecks Host 34 at Dinner Party

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2321

One of the largest, if not the largest, family dinner party in town last Thursday was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lueck of Hedgewood Drive where 34 relatives and in-laws gathered to celebrate the holiday.

Mr. Lueck who, incidentally, is an only child, welcomed his mother, Mrs. Marguerite Lueck of Warren, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Artymovich of Detroit, his wife's three brothers and two sisters, her two sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, 12 nephews and nieces and seven great-nephews and nieces.

The Luecks have two small boys of their own.

There's one household that didn't have turkey hash last week end!

ANOTHER FAMILY gathering was at the Gordon Fowles of Inverly Road who had as guests for Thanksgiving dinner, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Campbell of Pleasant Ridge, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Campbell and their sons, Mike, Don, and Bruce, of Eastmoor Road.

It was a neighborhood party at the Herbert Youngs of 5516 Putnam Drive who invited the Courville Morrow family of 5512 Putnam, and the George Pattersons and daughter, Patricia, of Deering Drive, to share the holiday feast with them.

SEVERAL FAMILIES spent the long holiday week end in Ohio.

The James Bernardinis and their four sons of Eastmoor Road were in Cincinnati, guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Andre.

The Jack Gunnas of Quarton Road were in Painesville, guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Pridoux.

ALSO RETURNING on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hallas of Inletts Road who had been with their son and his family in Swarthmore, Pa.

The Clark Hallases and their son, Michael, former residents of Royal Oak, moved to Pennsylvania last August when Clark transferred from United Press International in Detroit to become night editor of the Delaware County Times.

Also away for the long week end were the Robert Hoffmans of Putnam Drive who spent the holiday in their cottage on Grand Lake with their son, Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kieck of Sunnycrest Drive, and Miss Patricia Saunders of Bellvine Court.

On Friday the men went deer hunting and on Saturday the group traveled to Boyne Mountain for two days of skiing.

Home from college to be with their families were Sandra Eddy, daughter of the Herbert Eddys of East Newland Drive, and a Western Michigan freshman; and sophomore Douglas Norland of the University of Michigan, son of the M. B. Norlands of Lone Pine Road.

WITH THANKSGIVING Day a thing of the past, thoughts turn to Christmas. The Walnut Lake Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas party Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Walters, 4841 Walnut Lake Road.

The smorgasbord dinner and gift exchange will be followed by a songfest which Mrs. Walters will accompany on the organ.

Mrs. Otto Troz will head the committee in charge. Assisting her will be members of the executive board and the chairmen of the club's various committees.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Carey of Raven Court returned Nov. 20 from a three-week trip to the West coast. They flew to San Diego, traveled to Los Angeles,

Patti Duff Marks Sixteenth Birthday

Patti Duff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Duff of Birmingham, celebrated her sixteenth birthday Nov. 20 at a surprise dinner party at Bloombfield Hunt Club.

Guests included Carol Pazas, Sue Cokkin, Sue Foster, Ann Littleton, Lydia Vanni and Sherry Dowdell. The latter was hostess at a slumber party for the group following festivities at the club.

then took a leisurely three-day parlor car bus tour from L. A. to San Francisco.

The tour stopped at points of interest along the route with overnight stops at Santa Barbara and Monterey.

ALSO RETURNING that same week end from a similar trip were the Robert Piersons of Middleton Drive. However, they made the trip to and from the coast by train.

They also spent a much-enjoyed week in San Francisco, then rented a car to travel through Oregon and Washington.

Mr. Pierson being in the lumber business, they were especially interested in the many lumber mills in the region and visited several. It was a fascinating process, said Mrs. Pierson, to watch huge trees whittled down for pencils.

MR. AND MRS. Ralph Clayton of Blackburn Drive entertained their couples bridge group Saturday night. Present were the Herbert Eddys, Charles Myers, Art Morans and Robert McDonaldis.

Guests of Mrs. Walter M. Phild of Hedgewood Drive at Echo Park School's benefit dessert bridge yesterday were Mrs. L. T. Pickrell, Mrs. Floyd Clark, Mrs. Glen Ashton and Mrs. Robert Murdoch.
