

Home In Indianapolis Follows Western Trip

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Charles Demas, formerly Kathy Elaine Bloom, are honeymooning in San Francisco and Los Angeles, but will return Saturday to make their home in Indianapolis.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore E. Bloom of 4875 Old Orchard Trail, Orchard Lake. The bridegroom who resides in Indianapolis as did the bride, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas J. Demas of Muncie, Ind.

For the 7:30 p.m. ceremony in First Baptist Church, Birmingham, the bride wore an original gown of candlelight silk peau de soie. Embroidery of faerie pearls decorated the bodice of the Empire styled sheath and the short sleeves. A chapel Watteau train was encrusted with pearls and fell from the shoulders into an A-line.

A candlelight pearl-studded satin pillbox secured her silk English veil. A cascade bouquet of white fuji chrysanthemums and variegated acaha foliage formed her bouquet.

Mrs. Donald J. Demas of Winona Lake, Ind. and Sally J. Bannon of Indianapolis were her matron and maid of honor. They wore autumn gold velveteneous. Matching satin handbags encircled the suggested Empire bodices.

Two half bows with hem-length streamers accented the backs of the gowns. Their headpieces matched the gowns. Their flowers were cascades of bronze and rust pom-poms with cypress foliage and grape leaves centered by small green hobnail hurricane candles.

Attendants were Mrs. Richard Kinder of New Philadelphia, O.; Mrs. Kenneth Truclove of South Bend and Kathie Demas and Barbara Demas of Indianapolis.

They were attired as the honor attendants. Gold, deep bronze, rust and green were their bouquet color choices. The attendants' hobnail hurricane candles were amber.

Dr. Demas was the best man. Ushers were John Longcamp, Tom Dauler and Jack Elliot of Indianapolis; Robert Ochs of North Vernon, Ind.; James King of Seymour, Ind. and Mr. Kinder.

A buffet followed at Pine Lake Country Club. For her honeymoon trip the new Mrs. Demas wore a wool suit with complimenting taupe suede coat and hat.

Looking Ahead

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Considine of Orchard Lake announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Anne, to Thomas Joseph Fitzmaurice III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Joseph Fitzmaurice, Jr., of Long Island, N.Y. The bride-elect is a graduate of Barat College of the Sacred Heart, Lake Forest, Ill., and her fiancé has been graduated from Saint Bonaventure University, Olean, N.Y. An early summer wedding is planned.

Alpha Omicron Pi Has Busy Schedule

Members of Birmingham Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi and their guests were recently entertained in the home of Mrs. William Boyles of Kennesaw Road by the "Purple Flames", local candle makers.

Unusual designs were displayed and a short history of candle making in this country, plus present day trends in the art, was given by Mrs. Raymond W. Reid.

Assisting Mrs. Boyles during luncheon were Mrs. John Krosky, Mrs. T. M. Mandavent and Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley.

THE GROUP celebrated Founders' Day Wednesday at Greenfield's in Northland. Members from Detroit, Dearborn and Royal Oak joined local members.

Hospital Auxiliary Honors Founders

The Women's Auxiliary to the Grace Hospital held its Silver Anniversary Tea honoring the founders on Tuesday at the Nurses Residence.

Mrs. George S. Olmstead of Bloomfield Village, who is president of the auxiliary, gave highlights of the history, accomplishments, and goals of the organization from its inception to the present day.

Goals approaching completion are the Grace Hospital Northwest unit's remodelled and enlarged gift shop which will open in time for the holiday season and the furnishing of the Pediatric department children's playroom which is expected to be ready in the next few weeks.
