Miss Whiting Sets Mood For Nostalgia

It will be like old home week Friday evening when the Songstress Margaret Whiting opens the December floor show at the Detroit Athletic Club.

For many of the hosts and hostesses, entertaining that evening will remember the "Whiting kid," who lived up in the North End of town with her pretty mother, Eleanor, and her dad, in inimitable Dick Whiting, composer par excellence.

That was a long time ago—before the Whiting took off for points west and long before Margaret had made a name for herself as a recording artist, TV performer and musical comedy star.

NOW SHE'S CHALKED up a wide range of credits which run the gamut from being named one of the best dressed women in America to the 12 Gold Records she has recorded, each representing a sale of over a million discs. Localities planning dinner parties at the DAC for Friday are Clarence J. Baldr, Jr., Leslie C. Allman, Percy K. Lord, Emmett E. Hixon, E. V. Chilson, Richard J. Perry, William S. Spiegel and, from Farmington, W. J. Thompson, who will have 16 in his party.

On Saturday night, still in a black tie mood, reservations have been made by John E. Jennings, Alan A. McNab, L. G. Goodrich, Robert T. Gill, Gordon S. Applequist, Lewis J. Parry, Henry Sndrock, George Strick and Harold W. Small, of Franklin.

Dance Is Planned By Mercy League

The Mercy League of Oakland County will give a supper dance Friday at the Sign of the Beef-eater, 400 N. Woodward, Royal Oak. The party, which will start at 10 p. m., will benefit the Catholic Social Services of Oakland County.
