

Auxiliary To Meet

Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will meet Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Donald Brownlee, 636 E. Square Lake Road for a cooperative luncheon at 12:45 p.m. and Christmas party.

WNFGA Set For Exhibition

The evergreen symbolizes eternal life; the pine, immortality and winter; the myrtle, generosity, peace; the pineapple, hospitality; candles, the light of the world; and gladioli, hope. This is what, according to WNFGA, a flower exhibition expresses.

Members of Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association are making arrangements for an exhibition called "A Christmas Adventure," at the Birmingham Community House Dec. 9, from 2 to 9 p.m. and Dec. 10 from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

There will be swags and wreaths, flowers and greens in prize containers or containers indicating foreign lands. Christmas packages decked with flowers, say Christmas tables and many other equally interesting classifications.

The original plaster model of the Nordic Swan of the Hans Christian Andersen Fountain, designed by Marshall Fredericks for the Danish Home for the Aged in Rochester, will be the focal point of the stage decorations, which Mrs. George O. Cutter, general chairman, has planned.

Dempseys, Mexican Visitor Spend Holiday in the East

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

Marcelino Mendez of Mexico City, an exchange student living with the Bruce Dempseys of Hy-lane Drive for the past year, accompanied the Dempseys to the East for the Thanksgiving holiday week end.

They were guests of the Dempseys' son-in-law and daughter, the John Lubers of Wappenger Falls, N.Y. During their stay they visited Hyde Park, Vassar College and friends in Bristol, Conn.

Before departing for Mexico on Dec. 5, he will have a short visit with his 13-year-old sister, Razio, who arrived from Mexico City on Dec. 1, for a two-month stay through the N.C.C.W. She will make her home with the Frank Kellys of Dearborn.

It has been a busy year for Marcelino. He has visited Niagara Falls, and Disneyland, and has taken three trips to the World's Fair and toured New York City, traveled through the New England States and spent the summer at the seashore. Accompanying him on the trips have been the Dempseys and sometimes with daughter Rosemary, a sophomore at College of New Rochelle in New York.

One of his proudest moments was receiving the senior exchange medal from the Red Cross during his stay at the seashore. Prior to the hour he was a poor swimmer.

OTHER highlights were the talks he had at the Dempsey home with visiting foreigners which included four from Africa, one from Korea and three from Australia. After Marcelino's departure at Willow Run Airport this week end, the Dempseys plan to spend 10 days basking in the sun at Hollywood, Fla.

In January 1960 students from South America will be arriving and will need families, Catholic or Protestant, to include them in the family circle. Interested families in the North Adams area wanting an exchange student may contact Mrs. Bruce Dempsey of Hyland Drive, who is chairman of the foreign exchange in the area for the N.C.C.W.

THE MAN King home on North Adams Road was decorated for both Thanksgiving and Christmas last week when daughter, Sue DeWitt, arrived home from Greenville, a religious school in Cincinnati, O., for her one holiday celebration of the year. Greeting Sue were all the little Kings, Mary, Ann Marie, Christine, John, Mark, Max, Jr., Kitty and David.

Joining the family for Thanksgiving dinner and the day were relatives and friends, the Charles Morris family, the William Shephards, William Ayer and Mrs. Lucile Gregory of Pontiac, the Marion Stewarts of Warren and the Robert Clark family of Kentwood Road.

MRS. WILLIAM Schultz and son James of Burnley Drive left Thanksgiving morning via jet for Wichita, Kan., to spend the holiday week end with another son, William H. Schultz.

Flying to Clearwater, Fla., for a visit with grandfather, Robert Glendovee, to spend a few days on the beach over the Thanksgiving week end were the Ernest Millers and sons, Robert, Richard and Ronald, of Top View Court.

Houseguests arriving for Thanksgiving Day and the week end at the Monty Snyder home on Kirkcaldy Drive were relatives, Mrs. H. V. Snyder of Chicago and Mrs. Sue Herrick and sons of Barrington, Ill.

MR. AND Mrs. Howard Beer and children, Vanessa, Louis and Stephen, of Burnley Drive traveled to Buffalo, N.Y., for the holiday week end. During their stay they visited grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Beer and Mrs. Emil Pickinger.

Osage Garden Club members and guests will be gathering at the Papaya Restaurant for their annual Christmas luncheon on Monday afternoon.

"Holiday Trimmings" will be the topic discussed by the club's guest speaker, Joseph Smith of Lapelle's Flowers in Midland, Mich.

MRS. PAUL Spurlock of North Adams Road and Mrs. James Hargraves of Auburn Heights co-hosted an evening buffet luncheon and baby shower for a niece, Mrs. George Tate of Avon Township last Friday. Assisting the hostesses with the 31 guests was Mrs. Bernice Larson of Lake Orion. Mrs. Tate is expecting a baby Christmas.

Hickory Heights Homemakers Association held their annual meeting and election of officers an evening last week. The slate of officers include president, Peter M. Mann of Far Hill Drive; vice president, William R. Yaw, Jr., of Hickory Heights Drive; secretary, Kenneth A. Pickering of E. Valley Chase Drive; and treasurer, Richard G. Roeder of Rock Spring Drive.

Other members of the board of directors are David Muir, Robert Niemeyer, Don Richardson and Robert Grindley.

Have You Met?

The McGovern family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. and children Cindy, 12; Marjellen, 10; Amy, 8; John T. and Emily, 5 of 3787 Lane Lake Rd., Bloomfield Hills from Bloomfield Township? Mrs. McGovern is a school teacher and he is in labor relations with GMC Truck and Coach Division. Both are graduates of U-M. He received his MBA and is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon and his wife, Alpha Delta Pi. Their hobbies are hunting and gardening. They are members of the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham.

Pi Phi Sorority Plans Gala Party

A Christmas party has been planned for Dec. 8 by junior and senior alumnae of Pi Beta Phi sorority. The hostess is Mrs. El Wilson of 115 Chesterfield, Bloomfield Hills, her cohostesses being

Mrs. James Birney and Mrs. Gary Grossman from the junior group; Mrs. Harry Vibbert, Mrs. J. E. Kobot and Mrs. John Townsend from the senior group. During the party there will be a gift exchange and Christmas refreshments served. Each member is also bringing gifts for the patients at Lapeer State Mental Hospital. For further information, call Mrs. Mitchell Foster or Mrs. Philip C. Bartlett.
