VILLAGE

"Starlight, Starbright" will be the theme of the Bloomfield Village PTA meeting Monday, Dec. 7, at 8 p.m.

In a panel discussion, representatives of three religious faiths will talk about what part religion plays in a child's life. Guest speakers will be Rabbi Isaac Kramer, Rev. Carl Price and Rev. Fr. Maurice J. Geary. There will be a question and answer period, also.

COUNCIL

Mother librarians of all the elementary schools in the Birmingham school district met today at the home of Mrs. Marvin Marsh, chairman of the Library Committee, PTA Council.

Purpose of the meeting was to go over the recommendations made by the Elementary Curriculum Study Committee regarding school libraries.

Nine schools have reported to Mrs. Richard Griffith, membership chairman, PTA Council, on the progress of their membership drives. Chairmen of local units were asked to report what per cent of all possible members have joined the PTA.

To date the following chairmen have contacted Mrs. Griffith: Adams—70; Adams—Greenfield—51%; Marian—10%; Harlan—57%; Meadow Lake—69%; Pembroke—83%; Pierce—87%; Quanton—97%; Walnut Lake—49%.

Dated December 27, 1954. (48)

The accomplished single finger, of Stuart Fenstermacher plays three-finger chords.

Two Indian Students Visit Steeles

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

Mr. and Mrs. James Steele of Whysall had as their house guests for Thanksgiving, Manohar Motwani, a student at Wayne State University and Santosh Kohari from the University of Michigan.

Both young men are from Bombay, India, and although they had both spent more than one holiday with the Steeles, had never met. It was Motwani's third visit and Kohari's second.

The group had its Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wrenn of Birmingham, who are former neighbors of the Steeles when they all resided in Pennsylvania.

The Steeles' daughter Tina spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward who moved to Pennsylvania from Meadow Lake. While in the east Tina attended the Army-Navy game as the guest of Capt. Steve Bartholme, who lives in Franklin.

CHRISTMAS is always a busy time for people everywhere. It will be even more so for Jill Sage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Sage, Jr. of Red Maple Lane.

Jill is to be married to Stephen Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max E. Bell of Elkhart, Ind., on Dec. 25 at the First Presbyterian Church. Right now she is being kept busy being the guest of honor at numerous showers.

The first was given by Mrs. Thomas Morton, a member of the bridal party, in her Bloomfield home. It was a personal shower. The second was given by the First Presbyterian Church. Right now she is being kept busy being the guest of honor at numerous showers.

Mary Dolores, who will become the bride of Theodore Gurich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Ponzini of San Francisco, presented her to the bride. She is now teaching on the West Coast and will not return to this area until Dec. 18.

After that it will be on, go for her. Mrs. Arthur Grines of Sherwood will entertain her at a miscellaneous shower and brunch on Dec. 20.

ON DEC. 22 Mrs. Howard Keating, Mrs. John Gillespie and Mrs. Roy Dotkin will cohost a luncheon and linen shower for Mrs. Richard Kennedy of Detroit who will hold an evening party and personal shower for the bride-elect while Mrs. Paul Christ and Miss Barbara Berry will cohost a kitchen shower and luncheon on Dec. 27.

After the honeymoon in Las Vegas, the newlyweds will make their home in San Francisco and then return the groom's parents will hold a reception for them.

ANOTHER VERY bride-elect is Sue Appeldorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Appeldorn of W. Lincoln Drive. Sue, who will be married on Dec. 26 to Jack Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson Bradley of Battle Creek, is breathlessly awaiting showers.

Sue, employed in East Lansing, was honored by her coworkers at a kitchen shower held on Oct. 19. Cohosting the party was Peggy Thompson, Karim Fox and Winifred Manheimer.

Mrs. Edward D. Winder of Detroit held a miscellaneous shower and novel basket brunch on Nov. 14 while Mrs. Roger McConnell and Mrs. Harvey Marsden of Battle Creek, cohosted a luncheon and linen shower Nov. 21.

The next Saturday Mrs. Montague Miller of Sandringham held a party in her home at which the guests presented Sue with a "group gift." East Lansing was added to the scene of a shower and personal time, when Marsha Finch and Sharon Castle cohosted an evening party on Tuesday.

A luncheon and kitchen shower will be given on Dec. 12 by Mrs. Henry Buchford in her W. Lincoln home.

With wedding time coming close, Mrs. John Eason and Mrs. Fred A. Oiler will cohost a couples party on Dec. 18 which will also be a crystal shower.

FRIENDS of bride-elect Mary Dolores Heatonson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Heatonson of W. Lincoln Drive, really had to get their dates in early to entertain her at showers.
