Garden Clubs Planning For Christmas Season

A Christmas tea was held recently by the Berkshire branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association at the home of Mrs. Clarence Pratt of W. Lincoln Drive. Cohostesses were Mrs. Clarence Pratt of W. Lincoln Drive, Cohostesses were Mrs. William Hietz, Mrs. George Aho, Mrs. P. B. Appeldoorn, Mrs. Perry Brunk and Mrs. Leo Moore. Members brought wrapped Christmas packages and prizes were awarded for the prettiest, most humorous and most original packages.

ON WEDNESDAY the Bloomfield Farms Garden Club held its annual Christmas workshop at the home of Mrs. Gerald Dickson. Mrs. George DeVos, chairman, obtained greens and a variety of Christmas materials for members to make table arrangements, hangings and wall decorations.

THE NOVEMBER meeting of the Westchester branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association was held on Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. Robert Stoner of Westbourne Drive. Cohostesses for the evening were Mrs. Dwayne Christ, Mrs. Glenn Steinberg and Mrs. Raymond Glauser. Mrs. Raymond Reid was the speaker and demonstrated the use of candles and gave the background for the art of making candles. After the candle demonstration several members shared with the group their ideas for Christmas decorations.

Such things as trees of broken ornaments, hanging baskets made of hangers, a felt tablecloth strung with miniature lights and green arrangements around candles were on display. Those taking part in the program were Mrs. Norman Cornish, Mrs. Earle

HE SERVED in France during World War I and then began a medical career. He was instructor of internal medicine at the University of Michigan Medical School from 1932 to 1936. Dr. Ross has written many articles on gardening, history, geriatrics plus subjects dealing with medical ethics and economics. He is past president of many organizations. The club has had the privilege of hearing Dr. Ross before and this year are inviting husbands and friends to share the evening.

In continuing its work at Pontiac State Hospital the club plans to take Christmas gifts to the group of girls with whom they are now working. The girls are busy making Christmas favors and gifts, their latest project being pine cone corsages.

There were an estimated 741, 401,000 prescriptions written in 1963. Of these, 53.6 per cent were refills.
