

Thunderbird Shop

West Maple at Telegraph
in the Bloomfield Plaza

Cam and Mark wouldn't miss a visit to Bloomfield's fabulous toy store . . . the Thunderbird Shop! Cam's peeking out of the 4-sided portable doll house from ($50.00) . . . she can set up "house-keeping" anywhere in the house with this. The twin-motored model airplane, held by Mark, flies far on its two little gas engines (just $24.50). "Mr. Beetle," a colorful TV stool is a sturdy gift for any youngster and a real "conversation piece" for adult's tired feet. Just a few of the many unusual stuffed animals available this Christmas, can be spotted on the shelves behind Cam. Good old "Raggedy Ann" and "Andy" are lounging atop the child's piano. Come in to the Thunderbird Shop, any day for a thorough inspection of the enormous toy selection . . . all waiting to be popped into eager boys' and girls' Christmas stockings!

Mills Pharmacy

1740 West Maple
at Chesterfield

Mills Pharmacy is ready for Christmas! Actually Mr. Mills (shown here with their cosmetician, Jinx Rogalski) planned his holiday displays last August while finding out "what's new" at the annual cosmetic shows. They have literally stuffed their store (just like a Christmas stocking) with the newest in attractive gift merchandise from such famous fragrance houses as Revlon, Chanel, Guerlain, Fabergé, Balenciaga, Rubinstein, Caron, Houbigant, L'ancin, Christian Dior, Roger and Gallet and Dana. (A word to wise sardas . . . fragrance gifts are exceptionally pretty under any Christmas tree!) Mills Pharmacy sales personnel are ready to help all shoppers with quality gift ideas for Mothers and Dads, sisters and brothers. New, exciting selections of costume jewelry have also been received. For the small fry, Mills stocks several counters filled with overflowing with toys. Come in . . . look us over! Open every evening 'til 10 P.M., Sundays until 6 P.M.
