

Sartorial Splendor For Esquire

Comfort and good looks handsomely are blended in this Highland Tweed sport coat. The texture-touch fabric has the flavor and flair of Scotland, and its pattern is a plaid that's just dominant enough to be tasteful.

His suit is a Heritage Hopsack, with a luxuriously soft feel coupled with a stamina that men want in a suit. It is available in smart game feather colors.

For Santa to wear on his nights out: a Sharkey suit, with the fine all-wool shark-skin fabric's resistance to wear and wrinkles. Tiny light-colored threads give new flair to a fashion favored fabric. These menswear items are crafted by Hart Schaffner & Marx.

Always welcomed is a sports jacket like this one, which blends a bold-idea pattern with the richness of a brass-toned all-wool fabric. These neat modern lines are tailored by Society Brand clothes.

Pageant Set For Sunday at Lathrup Church

"Adoration of Kings and Shepherds", the annual Christmas pageant given by the children of the Sunday School classes of Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village, will be presented at 5 p.m. Sunday for those who attend the 9:30 a.m. classes and at 7 p.m. for those in the 11 a.m. classes.

Thirty children will participate in each presentation, totaling 60 children in the entire pageant which is under the auspices of the Board of Christian Education, Mrs. George Renton, chairman.

Under the direction of Mrs. Chester Furstenberg, administrative director of the church school, and Sunday school superintendents Fay Gifford and Robert Bouriche, the pageant committee has as co-chairmen Mrs. William Lomas and Mrs. Robert Phelps.

Also serving on the committee are Mrs. Laurence McLean, Mrs. Lewis Gath, Mrs. Fred Liesong, and Mrs. James Conroy, with Mrs. Percy Warner in charge of makeup.

COMMUNITY CHURCH'S Boy Scout Troop 1543 will have its court of honor, parades night, and Christmas party all rolled into one on Tuesday starting at 7:15 p.m., according to Rev. Philip Gentile, minister of the church.

Awards will be presented to those boys who have earned them since the last court of honor. Scoutmaster is William Fowlesky, assistant Scoutmaster, James Foster, and institutional Representative, Francis Moore.
