

Space-Age Exhibit Shown To Pine Lake Children

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

NASA came to Bloomfield Hills Friday afternoon when Jeri D. Ochs and Paul Lampkin of the National Aeronautics & Space Administration set up an exhibit of rockets, missiles and other paraphernalia of the space age at Pine Lake School.

They described and demonstrated the exhibit for the children at the student assembly, and again that evening for the P.T.O. Members of the Pine Lake Estates branch of the Women's National Farm & Garden Association and their husbands will gather at Sylvan Glen Inn for a dinner-dance Saturday evening.

In charge of the affair are Mrs. William Drescher, Mrs. Louis Zednik and Mrs. Dale Gardner.

THE CLUB will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Myron Beckman, 3659 Normanwood Drive, for the third in a series of Christmas workshops.

The feasting will be conducted by Mrs. Drescher and Mrs. Ed. with Koepke who took the Christmas craft workshop course at the Community House.

The Walnut Lake branch, W.N.F.G.A. will also hold a Christmas workshop Monday morning at the home of Mrs. John Kristof, 4806 Walnut Lake Road.

The club's annual Christmas luncheon took place this past Monday at the Orchard Lake home of Mrs. Robert Clark.

HERE ON a visit with their son's family, the Victor A. Casbolt of Pebleshire Road, are Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. Casbolt of Spokane, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bamberger of Kingsmill Drive and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jewett, attended the Highlanders dance at Orchard Lake Country Club Friday night.

The foursome were guests of the Joe Newells of Lantern Lane for cocktails before going on to the dance.

THE GEORGE Rehfeldts of

Raven Court entertained 20 of their neighbors at dinner on Nov. 29.

Mrs. Walter Epizon of W. Doherty Drive had a dozen friends in for cocktails on Dec. 1 before the group went on to Edgewood Country Club for the luncheon and fashion show given by the Mothers Club of Our Lady of Refuge Church.

JUDITH AND LYNN England left Nov. 29 for Chicago and Kalamazoo after spending the Thanksgiving holiday with their parents, the Fred Englands of Hedgewood Drive.

Judith, who received her master of science degree in English from the University of Wisconsin last summer, returned to her teaching post at Wilson Junior High School in Chicago.

Lynn resumed her junior year at Western Michigan University.

MRS. ROBERT IRWIN of Middlebelt Road returned from Seattle last week after a 12-day visit with her daughter, stewardess Marilyn Jo Irwin, of United Air Lines.

Recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baldrige of Sutters Lane were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Head, of Waco, Tex.

Festive Day Planned by Visiting Nurse

Kingswood School will be the scene of a merry Christmas Party Saturday, Dec. 12, at 2 p.m. Special Education Rooms at Vanderbilt School, Madison Heights and Berkley, will be entertained by the Kingswood girls, and all the boys will have model cars. Games and a show will be presented, along with ice cream and cake.

Every child will receive gifts, including stockings made by Girl Scout Troops No. 246 and 518 sponsored by the Franklin Community Church. Each girl will have a prize doll, dressed by the Kingswood girls, and all the boys will have model cars. Games and a show will be presented, along with ice cream and cake.

Members of the local Visiting Nurse Committee assisting in making the arrangements are Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Forbes S. Hazzell of Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. Robert O. Varnum and Mrs. Merle A. Welch of Birmingham; Mrs. George M. Howard of Franklin; Mrs. Don Thompson of Berkley and Mrs. Donald F. Campbell and Mrs. Gordon H. Scott of Pleasant Ridge.
