Recently Wed

New York City is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Herrman, wed Nov. 28 in that city. The bride is the former Judith E. Macpherson, a graduate of Kingswood School Cranbrook and Connecticut College. The couple honeymooned in Trinidad, Tobago and Grenada.

Carol Jane Shuler Wed Wearing Bianchi Gown

Arlington, Va. is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. William Scott Butcher, married Nov. 28 in double ring ceremonies at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

The bride is the former Carol Jane Shuler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Shuler Jr., of 146 Endicott Road, Bloomfield Hills. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butcher of Cincinnati, O.

The new Mrs. Butcher wore a floor-length Bianchi gown of ivory peau de soie, enhanced with Alencon lace embroidered on the neckline and bodice. A Dior hair with streamers accented the skirt which swept into a chapel length train. A pillbox of Alencon lace covered by a soft rose secured her bouffant French silk illusion, and she carried white roses.

HOLLY SHULER assisted her sister as maid of honor, while bridesmaids included Brooke Shuler, another sister; Mrs. Robert Peterson, Gail Butcher and Linda Roscoe. They wore floor-length sapphire blue gowns designed with Empire bodices of chiffon velvet, and carried pink roses.

The bride's brother and sister, Clark and Paula Shuler, assisted as ring-bearer and flower girl. Douglas G. Haug served as best man, while Jon Bachelder, Franz Pussel, Robert Ebel and James Stanforth seated the guests.

A supper reception at Orchard Lake Country Club followed the ceremonies.

In days of old the Pied Piper of Hamelin—led many a child astray. Today many women are led astray in much the same manner when it comes to furs. Before you next go shopping for furs—consult with the fur experts at Wrubel & Kozin. After serving Detroit's most discriminating families for over forty years, you too, can trust their judgment. At Wrubel & Kozin you'll find the finest furs of unquestionable value at modest prices.

Promise her anything but give her a dyed Black Broadtail Processed Lamb Coat designed by Fabiani from Wrubel & Kozin.
