

Women Contribute Gifts for Hospital

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1652

The holiday mail is beginning to be filled with party invitations—some of which are for sheer pleasure and some with a purpose.

Mrs. Paul Trimmer opened her Bloomfield Drive home on Thursday for the annual Christmas party of the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Guild. Forty guild members were hosted by Mrs. Franklin Mills of Greenleaf Road, social chairman, and her committee of hostesses, Mrs. L. E. Bideau of Rochester, Mrs. L. G. Huddle, Jr., of Ferndale and Mrs. D. C. Strauss of Pontiac.

A program of Christmas organ music played by 11-year-old twins, James and Joanne Granger of Pontiac, relatives of Mrs. Mills, and the stories told by Mrs. Cedric Simon of Detroit, a member of the Detroit Story League.

A HOLIDAY gift wrap party and workshop was staged at the home of Mrs. James Feilberg of Ashover Drive for members of the Chapel Hills Garden Club on Monday afternoon.

Guest speaker Mrs. Jean Goldner instructed the group on the fine art of gift wrapping, with the members supplying their own materials.

At each of the monthly meetings a member or members donate handwork for the "silent auction." The sums of money benefit the club's scholarship fund. Co-hostesses of the day were Mrs. Clifford Morgan of Ashover Drive and Mrs. William Kirkland of Peveler Drive.

THE WILLIAM HEATONS and their children, Lucinda, Whit, Alice and Donald, of Charnwood Drive will be entertaining at a family holiday open house on the afternoon of Dec. 20.

The afternoon will be filled with caroling, marching Christmas music around the fire and listening to the music of a "newly born orchestra." The group has been playing together for the past three weeks and includes 8-year-olds Alice Heaton and Sally Blackwood, 10-year-olds Whit Heaton and Becky Ball, 12-year-olds Steve Ball, and mothers, Mrs. William Heaton and Mrs. William Dewey, all of the Charnwood subdivision.

The invitations have gone out from the Earle Parcels home on Chisholm Drive inviting 30 couples from Grosse Pointe, Franklin and Birmingham, to their annual holiday party on the evening of Dec. 18.

The Parcels will again decorate their home in the greens and reds of the holiday season.

THE DONALD HITES of Lamplighter Lane will be entertaining at their annual holiday punch party on the evening of Dec. 18, inviting friends and neighbors to join them.

On the Saturday evening Mrs. Hite, a member of the Birmingham Village Players, will portray a girl in the Bronx in "Christmas Humbug," three one-act skits to be played to a closed performance at the Village Players on Christmas.

On Christmas morning Thomas Paul Hite, four-month-old son of the Donald Hites, will be christened at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. Godparents of the infant are Tim Cardwell of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Scott D. Best of Royal Oak.

Following the ceremony the treat will be back to the Hite home for Christmas dinner. The guests will include relatives the Howard Hites of Birmingham, the Paul Cardwells of Grosse Pointe, the Tim Cardwells and the Scott D. Bests.

A PREHOLIDAY cocktail party was hosted by the John Cannon of E. Valley Road on Sunday afternoon. Gathering around the holiday bedecked punch bowl were 50 friends and area neighbors.

The Paul Grahams of Haddington Drive invited holiday week-ends, Mrs. Robert P. Johnson, Miss Marion Templeton and Miss Ruth Templeton of Harbor Beach, Mich. During their visit they were all guests of the John Donaldsons of Franklin.

DOUG AND JANE Cellars will be accompanied by their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cellars of Rock Spring Drive, to Troy, O., on the week end to compete in the Eastern Great Lakes Subsectional Competition. Twelve-year-old, Doug and 10-year-old, Jane, who have been figure-skating the past four years will be competing against children from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota.

The William Pages of E. Valley Chase Drive announce the birth of a son, Daniel Andersen Page, born on Nov. 24. There are four other little Pages, Tom, 12, David, 10, Bruce, 8, and Barbara, 5.

Visiting the Pages and lending a helping hand are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Andersen of Muskegon, Mich., parents of Mrs. Page.

REBECCA HOWARD Hart, born on June 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hart of North Adams Road, was christened on Thanksgiving Day morning at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. Chosen as godparents were Mrs. William Heaton of Charnwood Drive, Chester Simmons of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Rebecca Anderson of Palo Alto, Calif.

After the ceremony soup and goodies were served back at the Hart home. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons arrived for the christening and were the Harts' houseguests through the holiday week end.

On Friday evening the Heaton entertained at dinner party for friends honoring the Simmons and the Harts.

Convent Holds Christmas Tea

The Janet Stuart Association of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Bloomfield Hills, will hold its annual Christmas tea on Saturday at the school for mothers and daughters. Each girl writes her mother an invitation.

Cochairmen this year are Mrs. Ralph A. Uvling and Mrs. Mildred E. Woodbeck, assisted by the girls in the upper school, who will act as hostesses on the reception committee, and serve the younger girls. The mothers preside at the tea tables, which are decorated in holiday style.

As in past years, Dennis Foley will be on hand to take color photographs of the family groups.

Soon to Wed

The engagement of Sarah Elizabeth Horton to Arnulf Johannes Gievers has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter Horton, 1120 Country Club Drive, Bloomfield Hills. Mr. Gievers is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John G. Gievers of 245 Wimpole Drive, Rochester. The couple, who both attend Oakland University, plan an April wedding.

Women's Club Sets Schedule for the Year

Franklin Knolls Women's Club set Dec. 3 as the day to start making decorating plans for Christmas. Helen Harcharik from the Reynolds Aluminum Co. demonstrated holiday creations and showed new wraps.

Members are marking their calendars for the first Thursday of each month. On Jan. 7 a dessert card party and bake sale is planned.

Month and a joint meeting with neighboring congregations is set for Feb. 4.

On March 4 Kay Savage, food editor of the Detroit Free Press, will speak. April 1 will be no joke—as the seventh annual luncheon is scheduled with fashions by The Jacqueline Shops.

May 6 will see presentations of officers' slates and a visit to Congregation Shalom Zedek while June 3 is installation luncheon with the program by the club members.

Cancer pad sewing dates are the second Wednesday of each month.
