Mark 90th Birthday With Two Festivities

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Mrs. Giovannini Cuchi was the honored guest at two recent parties in celebration of her 90th birthday.

The first party was a dinner held at the Holiday Inn on Telegraph Road. It was attended by members of the family, some of which came from out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Battista Fasquetti, Mr. and Mrs. Don Rizzolo, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pucin, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cuchi, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bryce, the Theodor Pasquas, Mrs. Edmund Cuchi and her son Wayne, Mrs. Humbert Mularoni, Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarence Mularoni, Jr. and the E. Clarence Mularoni were all on hand to help Mrs. Cuchi celebrate. Even the Holiday Inn congratulated Mrs. Cuchi with a great big "Happy Birthday Mrs. Cuchi" on the sign outside.

The second celebration was an open house given by Mrs. Humbert Mularoni at her Clarendon Road home in honor of her mother. The open house was attended by many old friends of Mrs. Cuchi.

IT WILL BE a "musical soiree" at the Jerry Jerome home on Dakota Circle, Wing Lake, when they entertain on Dec. 13. The party will be in honor of Mr. Elio DeFelicis who produced and performed in the "Great Continental Review" at the Masonic Temple on Dec. 3rd.

Among the others invited to attend the soiree are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fogarty, also of Wing Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Krause, Joel Nash and Mrs. Lydia Cantrell.

IT WAS GUEST night at the Highlander Dance Club last Friday evening. Entertaining before the dancing at Orchard Lake Country Club were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buhler of Cedar Bend Drive, Sodon Lake and the Joseph Newells of Lantern Lane, Foxcroft.

Mr. and Mrs. Buhler opened their home for cocktails for about 50. Attending were immediate neighbors and their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Canan and the George Russells, both of Lathrup Village, were guests of the Buhlers.

Employers Give Tips for Young Job-Seekers

Area firms which hire 20 or more people have been invited to tell high school counselors what they want in future employees.

Dr. William F. Moorhouse, Oakland Schools guidance director, said this information is being sought as a part of a project to improve the opportunities for the high school student who intends to go to work immediately after graduation.

Moorhouse said letters have been mailed to 150 employers. Incomplete mailing lists will prevent a high percentage of employers from getting letters. These people may call the Oakland Schools office, FE 5-9481, and request forms now being mailed.

"COUNSELORS HAVE the task of helping students make the transition from high school to employment or job training," Moorhouse said. "They will use the information from employers to help individual students understand how job requirements apply to them and how they can plan their high school course to make themselves more employable."

In the future, employers will be contacted each fall to update the information. A job-opening survey will be mimeographed and sent to all high school counselors in January.

The survey form asks the employer to estimate the number of beginning jobs he expects to have open in the coming year, the duties of the positions as well as the level and kind of education an applicant should have.

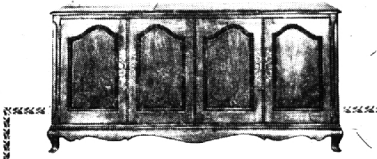

One of the interesting exhibits at the National Ski Hall of Fame in Ishpeming, Michigan is a pair of skis from Sweden, believed to be about 3,200 years old. Remnants of historic skiing events from nearly every country in the world are displayed in the hall.

At Home

Newlyweds Dan and Wanda Barba returned recently from their European honeymoon which took them to Scotland, England, Belgium, West Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Upon their arrival in Europe, the couple purchased a Volkswagen which they drove to many out of the way places, shipping it back to America at the end of their trip. Mrs. Barba is the former Wanda Jankie, daughter of Mrs. Frank Jankie of Locherbie Road, Beverly Hills. The couple is temporarily residing in Berkley.
