LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Holiday Tea Scheduled For Delta Kappa Gamma

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-2327

Mrs. Alice Martin will open her home at 27170 Lathrup Blvd., Lathrup Village, on Sunday for a tea. Invited to attend the holiday event are members of the Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society.

Cohostesses include Mrs. Jean Bloss, Mrs. Lois Lewis, Miss Taia Katapodis and Mrs. Mary Carraway, chairman of the hostesses.

Dr. Robert Knighton, surgeon-in-chief of the neurosurgical department of Ford Hospital, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be the "S S Hope in Peru."

Other guests will include the exchange teachers and the sponsored student, Sigrid Pylkas.

In the true Christmas spirit of giving, each member will arrive with a gift to be sent to the Korzan child sponsored by Miss Margaret Welch.

THE VILLAGE Dance Club gathered at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Southfield for its December dance last Friday evening. Hosts for this last dance were Mayor and Mrs. Richard Cogger and Mr. and Mrs. Don Stanley.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Vic McAuliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Turner, Mrs. Walter Bauffman, the Bob McFaddens, the Ed Nolans and the Jerry Beyers.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Peterson, the Lou Contratts, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Norberry, Mrs. and Mrs. Chick Palazzola, the Ralph Bowens and Don Zimmerman.

Latest newcomers to join the ranks of members of the club were Barney and Gladys Yost of Morningside.

ENTERTAINING at a cocktail party before the Village Dance Club dance last Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. James McCrory of Glenwood. Their guests numbered about 14.

The invitations are out for the Christmas party scheduled by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simpson of Redwood. The date is Dec. 19 with about 24 expected to attend the annual affair.

Cathy Lindstrom has been spending her week ends with her parents, the John B. Fosters of Autumn Lane, Cathy, a stewardess for American Airlines, makes her home in San Francisco and flies between there and Detroit each week. She brought two stewardess friends with her this past week end.

Neighborhood Notes from Peggy

Since the day the bulldozers tore out the apple orchard eight years ago to make way for rows of ranch houses with built-in kitchen ranges, there have been many a grease fire in the kitchens in Adams Village. It's so easy to start one; all you have to do is drop a pat of butter in a skillet, turn your back a minute and you have a flaming skillet.

The latest fire had the lady of the house in a panic. Discovering the flames, she grabbed the Saturday dropped it up, dropped it again (scorching the linoleum in several places) before she finally beat out the fire.

As she stood in amazement surveying the damage her 12-year-old son inquired, "Why did you get so excited, didn't you see I had the fire extinguisher?"

"Why didn't you use it?"

"I was reading the directions."

MR. AND MRS. Frederick R. Haines, 1723 Bowers, returned Monday from a five-day trip to Chicago. Mrs. Haines visited with friends while her husband attended the National Assoc. of Home Builders convention.

To celebrate their son Richard's birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmes, 1982 Haynes, took him and his friends to the Saturday Matinee at the Birmingham theatre and then to Ted's for a treat after the show.

Guests at the party were Mike Dennis, Tony Onica, Dave Clark and John Hamilton.

WHEN BOY SCOUTS go on a campout it is no spur-of-the-moment affair. James H. Atwell made reservations a year ago for Boy Scouts in troop 1020 to occupy cabins at B-A Scout Reservation at Metamora the weekend of Nov. 27.

Jim Stinson planned the menu and did the marketing. Among other things, his grocery list included six pounds of hamburger, three dozen buns, five loaves of bread, six dozen eggs and an eight pound ham.

Jess Murray, committee chairman of Troop 1020, was chief cook; however, each of the 16 boys on the campout was required to cook his own breakfast plus one lunch out of doors.

With Lloyd Dow, Scoutmaster and William Pitcock, his assistant, urging them on the boys learned fire building and safety went on a five-mile hike and took their turns on clean-up duty—all of which counted toward Merit Badges.

FAMILIES TURNED out en masse for the annual Christmas program presented at Torry School Tuesday night.

The glow club and all pupils in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades sang carols under the direction of Mrs. Aurelia Powledge, vocal music teacher.

Instrumental music students, also performed with Victor Hickman, instrumental music teacher, directing.

The teachers of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades assisted Mrs. Powledge with the preparation and production of the program which included both popular and traditional carols—"O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Now You Yelet" (in French), "Silent Night" (in German), "Joy to the World," "O, Come All Ye Faithful" and many other favorites.

Responsible for the scenery and programs was Richard Dexter, art teacher.
