Give an everlasting gift this Christmas

were Mr. and Mrs. James Gleason of Syracuse, N. Y. Mrs. Gleason is Mr. VandeVelde's sister.
Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Ben Franklin dropped in to say hello as did Mrs. Donald Ross of Lahar Road, who spent the evening entertaining the group with her delightful singing and excellent piano playing.
It was a very busy week end in the Detroit area the VandeVelde's discovered when they tried to obtain tickets for their guests for either a hockey game or to the Fisher theater, only to find everything had been sold out long ago.

THE HENRY Gluckstads of Farmingdale Drive spent the Thanksgiving week end in Elmhurst, Ill. where they attended a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hager and Mrs. Christine Hager, who are Mrs. Gluckstads' brother and mother, respectively.
Mrs. James Dowdell of S. Williamsbury Road flew East recently where she spent 10 days at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt of Demarest, N. J. One of the things enjoyed by the sisters was shopping in New York City.

DEC. 5 was the date of the Berkshire Association annual dinner dance. It was held at the newly enlarged Birmingham Athletic Club.
Fifty couples attended the cocktail hour held at 7:30 p.m., after which dinner was served. Co-chairmen of the party were Mrs. Charles Bodwell and Mrs. Buddy Atchoo.

Among those who held cocktail parties in their homes previous to the party were Mr. and Mrs. James Bostwick, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Atchoo, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Krueger and Mr. and Mrs. Al Walker.

Mrs. Gene Parnell of S. Williamsbury Road flew to Chicago with her young son Larry on Nov. 22 to spend a week visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dugan. They were joined on Thanksgiving by Mr. Parnell. They spent a happy family week end and then returned home together.

NOV. 18 is the cafeteria of Brother Rice High School was filled with an air of excitement and anticipation.
The freshman football squad was being feted for its fine record during the past season. The boys and their parents, members of the faculty and several guests dined on a buffet supper provided by the mothers of the boys.
The master of ceremonies, James Murphy, introduced the coaches, Paul Maloney and John Callaghan, who after brief talks, introduced the players and handed out letters to them.
Of the special awards Robert Larkins was voted the best back-field player, Don Groba received a trophy as the best lineman and Terry Tigue was voted the most improved player. The varsity coach, Joseph Pasceuzi, gave an inspiring talk to the boys.
Guest speaker was Bruce Mahor of the Detroit Lions who after an entertaining speech answered questions from the audience.

ON FRIDAY, Nov. 13 the Richard Newtons of Farmingdale Drive flew to New York where they boarded the ship the Homeric for a relaxing cruise which took them to Nassau for a week. Among the sights most impressive to Mrs. Newton was the beautiful beaches.

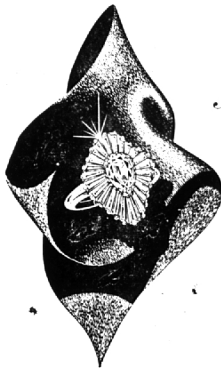

It was really a Thanksgiving day at the Steve Tompkins home on Pickering when their daughter Polly was home from her studies at Michigan State University and son Peter was home from New Orleans where he is based in the armed services.

Peter was home for a 10-day stay and spent a good deal of the time catching up on renewing acquaintances.

House guests at the Roderick McDonald home on Westbourne Drive for the Thanksgiving week end were the Robert Wehrhims of Chicago who brought with them their children, Mark and Lisa. One evening of the visit was spent at the Club Metropole in Canada.

THE BIRTHDAY club of the Cranbrook-Maple area held a party at the Northwood Inn on Dec. 7.
Attending were Mrs. Josephine Lane, Mrs. Thad Machrowicz, Mrs. Whit Dashiell, Mrs. John Weber, Mrs. Ralph Smith and Mrs. Edward Nelson. Also invited were Mrs. Richard Knudsen, Mrs. Charles Richards, Mrs. Joseph Jasper, Mrs. Lillian LaFontaine, Mrs. Barbara Worden, Mrs. Joseph Moreau and Mrs. Nick Mitchell.
