STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA

A Special Report

Our new ten-page special report is a concise study of Standard Oil of California, one of the major international oil companies. It lists ten fundamental reasons why we believe there will be a resurgence in this company's earnings. In our opinion, the greatly enhanced strength and growth potential of California Standard has not been fully recognized by the securities market. We recommend the company's common stock for both long-term capital appreciation and income. For a free copy of the new Report, write or call for NT 13.
