Party for the Juniors

As inevitable as the holiday itself is the annual Christmas tea given by the Birmingham Woman's Club for its junior members. This year's party took place at the Community House and included a musical program as well as reading of Christmas verses. Among those present were Mrs. Frederick C. Betz (from left), Mrs. Olga Rosenbusch and Mrs. Jack Berka.

PTA Notes

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

Franklin school is presenting its Christmas program "Winter Holiday-Celebrations Around the World" tonight at 7:30.

Each grade will depict a different country and how it celebrates Christmas. Participating in the program will be boys and girls in grades two through six, and the orchestra and glee club.

A special meeting of the Birney PTA, Southfield, has been called for tonight at 7:30 in the gymnasium one-half hour before the Junior High Holiday program. The purpose of the meeting is to approve the 1964-65 budget and the 1965 nominating committee.

If you get ink on a shirt, rinse garment in cool water, wash in hot suds with a few drops of ammonia added and rinse again.

Round of Holiday Parties Starts on Sutters Lane

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

The merry-go-round of holiday parties has begun! An open house was held last Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parker of Sutters Lane.

On Sunday, 120 guests were welcomed by the Jack Sparkes of Central Quarten Road. This coming Saturday, the Jack Wares and Louis Vogts are co-hosting a cocktail party to be held at the Wares' home on Sutters Lane.

Also giving a cocktail party are Mr. and Mrs. Byron Lowrance of Idlewyde Road who will entertain Friday.

A recent house guest of the Lowrance was her mother, Mrs. Mary Harwell of San Angelo, Tex. The Lowrance were in San Angelo for Thanksgiving and brought Mrs. Harwell home with them for a visit.

TWO GRANDMOTHERS arrived Tuesday to spend the Christmas season with their respective daughters' families.

Here from Portsmouth, Va., is Mrs. Robert James Vaughn who is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sanders of Priory Lane.

Mrs. A. H. Budahn of Peoria Heights, Ill., is visiting the George Moores of Kingsmill Drive. Christine Moore comes home Friday from Marquette University in Wisconsin.

ALSO ARRIVING home from college tomorrow is Barbara Bachman who is a freshman at Central Michigan University. She is the daughter of the William A. Bachmans of Loch Lomond Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Petersen of Woodwind Drive returned to Michigan's snow and frigid temperatures last week after a 10-day stay at Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Fla.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Mooney of Middleton Court are back from a trip to Mexico City where they visited the Aztec pyramids, the silver shops in Taxco and saw a bullfight.

Mrs. William Corey of Putnam Drive attended Forest Lake Country Club's annual ladies Christmas luncheon Wednesday.

It is reported in the British press that England's Prime Minister, Sir Douglas-Home, owns only three shirts.
