Gleasons to Host 40 at Carol Sing

By ELI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

Most families have Christmas traditions and Chuck and Janet Gleason of Sleepy Hollow Lane are no exception—except that their particular tradition includes not only their children Leslie, 12, and Tom, 9, but the children's friends and their families as well.

Next Tuesday the Gleasons will host their annual Christmas carol sing and short story slings the Nativity to nearly 40 people, among them the William Russells, the Ed Heorolds, the Dan Burings, and the Jack Jamisons and the Richard Judys of Nottingham.

Also present will be Janet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mathis of Chicago, who will stay through the holidays.

The Gleason youngsters and their friends also have another annual wintering project, which is the making and maintaining of a backyard ice rink. Weather permitting, there is skating all season long, enlivened with lights, music and hot chocolate.

her parents Mr. and Mrs. John C. Talpos of Auburn Drive. Leslie Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hawkins of White Oaks Trail, will be here from Michigan State University.

Judy Andrews, a sophomore at Olivet, will be here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack Andrews of Red Oaks Trail. Diane Lidgard and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lidgard of Robin Hood Drive.

Greta Cruse, a student at Marywood Academy in Grand Rapids and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cruse of White Oaks Trail, will also be here.

Rob Wise, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Wise also of White Oaks Trail, will be home from Assumption High School in Windsor.

Cloutier and Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson.

There was a good turnout last Tuesday at the Nottingham Drive residence of Mrs. William Fisher when members of the fledgling Nottingham Forest Branch of the WNFGA arrived prepared to spend the day making Christmas decorations.

The greens workshop was headed by Mrs. Robert Dewar and Mrs. Kenneth Brands, who were assisted by several members of the Westchester Branch, Mrs. Earl Heft, Mrs. Boris Osojnak, Mrs. Roger Cutler and Mrs. John Wait.
