Tonight at 8:30 the Junior Girl Scouts of Torry School are going Christmas caroling around the neighborhood. About 60 Girl Scouts will stroll through the streets singing and then return to the school for a party.

Accompanying the girls and assisting at the party are Mrs. Robert Weber, Mrs. Robert Brauburger, Mrs. Harold Handley, Mrs. Mason Erb, Mrs. Everett Robbins, Mrs. Alice Strachan, Mrs. Ben Jusick, and Mrs. Steven Urban, Jr. Mrs. Neal McCue and Mrs. Harold VanDame are in charge of refreshments. Girls in troop 55 baked the cookies.

HALF THE Girl Scouts in the Derby Junior High School Cadet Troop went caroling at Pontiac General hospital Monday night, and the other half sang at Sherwood Hall. At Pontiac General hospital, the Girl Scouts sang in the children's ward.

After the caroling, the girls at both the hospital and the convalescent home distributed gifts they had made for the patients.

Later in the evening the Scouts met at the home of Mrs. Donald L. Marine, 2459 Chelsea Lane, for refreshments.

Accompanying the Cadet Troop were the leaders, Mrs. Erling Oyen and Mrs. John W. Jickling.

MRS. JOSEPH A. LaFave of Syracuse, N. Y., has arrived in Birmingham to spend the holiday season with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. LaFave, Jr., 1509 Haynes St.

Several of the 106 Detroit and Oakland County sports car enthusiasts on the flight were Birmingham residents. Among the Birmingham area people aboard were Mr. and Mrs. William A. Schumacher, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Mulholland and Mr. and Mrs. William Janowski.
