

State Police Ask Safe Yule Driving Practices

With Michigan near the end of one of its worst years for traffic deaths, Commissioner Joseph A. Childs is appealing for all-out driver and pedestrian cooperation in good safety practices to help special State Police patrols hold down accidents over the 78-hour Christmas and New Year holiday weeks.

The 33 persons killed in the two 24-hour periods a year ago—17 at Christmas, 16 at New Year's—gave Michigan two of the highest hourly death rates for these holidays in recent years.

The Christmas rate of one death every hour and 48 minutes was topped only by that of 1955 when 60 were killed in 78 hours, an average of a fatality every one and a half hours.

The New Year rate of one death every hour and 52 minutes topped the previous high mark of 1959-60 when 36 were killed in 78 hours, an average of one death every two hours and 12 minutes.

RECORDS SHOW average tolls for the last five 78-hour holiday periods are 33 for Christmas and 18 for New Year's.

State Police patrols will be in effect on the Christmas week end from noon Thursday, Dec. 24, to midnight Sunday, Dec. 27, and for the New Year period from noon Thursday, Dec. 31, to midnight Sunday, Jan. 3.

Maximum patrol coverage will be provided from 1 to at least 9 p.m. each day. Principal attention will be devoted to state trunkline highways and primary county roads having high accident experience and high traffic volume.

Detectives where available will take over desk assignments to relieve uniform officers for patrols.

Patrol officers have been instructed to be especially alert for persons driving under the influence of intoxicating liquors because of the high incidence of drinking during these holidays.

Assisting the State Police will be 106 members of the Michigan National Guard who will serve as second men on two-man patrols or on point control.

Peace Lutheran Church Slates Special Services

Peace American Lutheran Church on 13 Mile, between Southfield and Greenfield Roads, is celebrating Christmas in its old building with three special services.

Sunday at 6 p.m., the Sunday School will present seasonal music with a pageant, accenting the whole life of Christ; His birth, His crucifixion and His resurrection.

On Christmas Eve, next Thursday, there will be services at 8 p.m. and 11 p.m., with Holy Communion following each. The Junior Choir will sing at 8 p.m. and the Senior Choir at 11 p.m.

Sunday, Dec. 27, there will be an additional service of Holy Communion at the 11 a.m. worship service.

If you've wondered why there are two buttons on the back of a cut-away coat, it's because the land-natives of old England would loop up the tails and button them out of the way when riding.
