

B'field Hills Correspondent Receives Citizenship Award

By CAROL MORRISON
Special Writer

gifts for the children's ward at Northville State Hospital.

STUDENTS WILL also use the money from the Christmas fund to purchase a television set to be used for education purposes in the hospital classrooms.

The National Honor Society will also provide a Christmas for young hospital patients. A party for underprivileged children is being considered, but the project is still in the planning stage.

Karen Trimmer is this year's recipient of the DAR Good Citizen Award. The DAR award is presented annually to a Bloomfield senior girl who has given evidence of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism throughout her high school career.

Along with good citizen winners from Seaholm, Groves and Clawson, Karen and her mother attended a tea at the William S. Mullens home on December 8. The Piety Hill Chapter presented her with a Good Citizen's pin at that time.

Each of the senior English classes nominated three students whom they felt best fulfilled the specifications of the DAR. A faculty committee then made the final selection.

KAREN HAS demonstrated her willingness to serve by her participation in extracurricular activities. At present she is recording secretary of the senior class and news bureau manager of the "Shield," the BHHS newspaper.

She is also president of the Foreign Relations Club, a member of the National Honor Society, treasurer of the Trip Club, a member of the literary staff of Bloomfield's yearbook and secretary of the Executive Club.

In addition to these activities, Karen writes a column for The Birmingham Eccentric and the Pontiac Press.

Karen will be a part of statewide competition along with other good citizens throughout Michigan. These girls will be judged upon a questionnaire that they will fill out sometime in January.

Thirty girls will be selected to attend the state convention. The winner will receive a $100 United States Savings Bond, and will represent Michigan in the national convention.

The Daughters of the American Revolution is a patriotic association made up of women whose ancestors fought for our independence. The organization was founded in 1890.

DEPENDABILITY, service, leadership and patriotism are required of a good citizen; and each is divided into several categories.

The DAR considers dependability as loyalty, truthfulness and punctuality. Service is composed of co-operation, courtesy and consideration of others; leadership as personality, self-control and responsibility. Patriotism stresses unselfish loyalty to American ideals.

Past BHHS winners of the Good Citizen Award are Marcee Merrill, Pat Remy and Marguerite Hyde.

Psychology students at BHHS have enjoyed many activities during the Christmas season this year. Among their plans was a holiday party held at Pontiac State Hospital on Dec. 15.

At this occasion, the patients and Bloomfield students danced to records, sang Christmas carols and had refreshments. Another facet of their Christmas plans was the collection of games, books, clothing and jewelry. These have been donated to children residing at the hospital.

Two BHHS clubs, the Forum and the National Honor Society, have also planned goodwill projects for the Yule season.

The Forum will extend the Christmas spirit through a Christmas fund in addition to their annual clothes drive this year. The Christmas fund consists of money earned from the sale of doughnuts. It will be used to provide about 50

Dads Defeat Scouts In Annual Game

Fathers dropped in more baskets to beat the Boy Scouts of Holy Name Troop 1012 under Scoutmaster William Maher Thursday evening at their annual Christmas party. Alex Loiko, game director, warned the contestants that the losers would be ball targets thrown by the winners.

Fear vanished when only one direct hit was tallied by the fathers. The games followed skits demonstrating mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, shock, first aid and severe bleeding.

Treasurer Emerson Goetz announced the summer camp winners, earned by selling the most Christmas wreaths: Laine Lathier, Tony Tucker, Willard Quirk and Jim Silcock.

Wreath making, the troop's main money raising project, was completed recently under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Goetz with scout mothers tying bows, then later attaching the bows, cones and berries to complete the wreaths with the aid of the dads. As the products came off the line fathers and scouts made delivery trips around town.

Serviceman Home From West Coast

Dan Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin of 6030 Lahser, Birmingham, and a Seaholm graduate, has been graduated by the U.S. Marine Corps and will be home for the Christmas holiday.

He will return to Camp Pendleton, Calif. for four weeks of advance combat training. During training he was awarded an expert's medal for rifle shooting.

East Hills Basketball Squad Wins Twice

By LINDA HONG
Special Writer

The East Hills basketball season started off with a bang as the Cavaliers defeated its first opponent, Cray Junior High on Dec. 4. The home game ended with a win of 44-29. A short pep rally was held before the game in an all-school assembly.

The second game was played against Walked Lake Junior High on Dec. 11 at Walked Lake. This ended in another victory for the Cavaliers with a score of 49-48. A pep assembly was held in the gym. The East Hills-Smart game will be played on Jan. 8 at Smart.

The Dec. 18 meeting again involved members in a fun-finite. Canned goods were donated by the students on Dec. 18 to emphasize Red and White Day. The food was given to a needy family in Northern Michigan on Saturday.

The Junior Historians Club underwent their first project on Dec. 12 and 19. These two Saturday mornings and afternoons were spent on selling baked goods and candy canes in Birmingham and to neighborhood houses.

The Pancake Supper, to be held on May 10, 1966, will be headed by the mayor, Pete Young. In charge of the schedule of activities is Sue Thomas. Mary Leversuch in charge of publicity, Dave Wolung, Linda Clark and Ann Frey working on tickets; Sue Beecher in charge of the meal.

THE STUDENT COMMISSION

Dec. 24, 1964 THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC 3-B

One of our employees? No, he's a customer in our new main office. Snuffy McGill, by name—television news photographer by occupation. With a lot of figuring to do, Snuffy does it at this special customer's desk, adding machine and all. Unique to our new downtown office? Not at all. You can expect to find extra services like this, to make your banking faster, at all our offices. You see, we like to be as careful with your time as we are with your money.

DETROIT BANK
& TRUST