Marcia Jo Pais Becomes Mrs. Richard Bothwell

By ELEANOR NELSEN

Mr. and Mrs. Telio L. Pais of Siders Cove have announced the marriage of their daughter Marcia Jo to Richard J. Bothwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Bothwell of Detroit at St. Gerard's Church on Dec. 12.

The doubling ceremony was performed by Rev. Father James J. Downes. Dorothy Camilli was the maid of honor and Peggy Pais and Carol Pais were bridesmaids. Flower girl was Beverly Bierylo. Michael Bothwell served as best man and ushers were Charles Bothwell, Daniel Gerhard and Paul George. Following the marriage breakfast was served to 175 guests at Plum Hollow Country Club. After a honeymoon trip to Chicago the newlyweds will make their home in Detroit.

As a prelude to the wedding a luncheon and miscellaneous shower was hosted by Mrs. J. J. Pais, Mrs. Anthony Bierylo and Mrs. Manley Benedetti in the Pais home on Dec. 6. Marcia Jo's sorority sisters from Marygrove held a luncheon and miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Michael Bierylo on Nov. 28.

The splinter dinner was hosted by Mrs. William Biettermore of Detroit on Dec. 4. Out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Korte, both of Grand Rapids, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mechem from Grand Blanc. There were also guests from Saginaw, Cleveland and Kalamazoo.

IT WAS PARTY time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gentzel of Teynham Place on Dec. 11 when they entertained the couples club from the church. The evening was planned as a progressive dinner with the main course being served at the Gentzel home. Twenty-six couples traveled from Detroit to Birmingham and back to Detroit in time for the various courses with only one late arrival and that one had a very good excuse.

Seems the car slid into a ditch while trying to make a wide turn. Fortunately there were no casualties. On Saturday the Gentzels served a buffet supper to eight couples.

The males are all members of a Parade of Progress group from General Motors.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN LaVrakas of So. Williamsbury arrived home on Dec. 15 after having spent two weeks in the East where they visited with M. LaVrakas' parents Mr. and Mrs. Apostle LaVrakas of Lincoln, Mass., and also with Mrs. LaVrakas' parents, the John Gomasatos of Waterloo, Mass.

Some time was also spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sliomatos in New Jersey. Dinner at the famous Jimmy's Harbor-side and viewing the outstanding Christmas decorations at Rockefeller Center in New York City were some of the highlights of their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mitchell of So. Cranbrook Cross Road hosted a dinner party in their home on Dec. 12 which they entertained business associates of Mr. Mitchell.

OPEN HOUSE was held on Christmas Eve by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Volkman of So. Cranbrook Cross Road to wish their friends and neighbors Christmas cheer.

A word of caution to you gals who turn on your clothes dryer and then leave home on an errand. Mrs. Harold Hillier of So. Cranbrook Cross Road was mighty glad she hadn't done just that because she had to make a hurried call for the fire department and fortunately had no more than a load of charred clothes.

BETTY JANE HALLOCK, affectionally known as B.J., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hallock of Halvard is receiving a thrilling Christmas gift from her parents, a trip to the Rose Bowl game in Pasadena, she's leaving on the 29th of December with a student-planned group.

What could be more wonderful? Betty Jane is at the present time a student at the University of Michigan.

The Meadow Lake Women's Auxiliary held its Christmas tea at the home of the president, Mrs. Richard Hallock of Halvard on Monday. Potting were Mrs. Stanley Martin, Mrs. Harry O'Droski, Mrs. John Holmes, Mrs. Stewart Wilson and other past presidents.

OPEN HOUSE was held by Mr. and Mrs. P. M. MacPherson of Woodbank on Sunday from 1 to 7 p.m. for friends and neighbors. Approximately 50 people enjoyed being served from the attractive punch bowl.

The John Shipley's of Woodbank are competing with the televised football games when they hold their open house on New Year's Day but Mrs. Shipley assures the male half of the 25 couples expected to attend that their television set is in proper working condition and that they can keep posted on the scoring.

MR. AND MRS. H. K. Nulf of Lahser Road returned two weeks ago after having spent three weeks in Europe. They not only flew there and back but also through it when they visited Amsterdam, Cologne, went down the Rhine, stopped at Innsbruck, and then on to Italy where they were thrilled to hear the Pope make a speech to an audience.

After viewing St. Peter's Church in Rome, which they claimed to be the most beautiful they have ever seen, they went on to Paris to see all the "musts."

The very merriest of Christmas wishes to the many wonderful people who have provided me with news for this column during the past year.

MRS. W. A. LEESCH

Cheryl Crego Speaks Vows In Church

Cheryl Lynn Crego, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley W. Crego of Beverly Hills, walked up the aisle of the First Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon to become the bride of Walter Arthur Leesch III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Leesch of Saginaw.

THE BRIDE'S gown was fashioned of peau taffeta, designed with a sculptured neckline, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt which extended into a chapel train. It was accented by Chantilly lace and tiny pearls and sequins. Her bouffant veil fell from a headpiece of lace and pearls, and she carried cymbalium orchids and variegated holly.

The attendants, all of whom were gowned in flame-colored peau de tulle and carried white carnations and holly, included Carl Ann Heintz, honor maid; Pat Leesch of Saginaw; Trudy Johnson of Birmingham; Diane Nichols of Detroit and Julie Johnston of Beekley.

JEFF DYKES, of Wauwatosa, Wis., was best man, and seating the guests were Bruce Ruisard of Glen Ellyn, Ill.; John Gorbey of Canton, O.; George Crego of Birmingham; Raymond Norton of Farmington; Bill Ennis of Saginaw and Bill Rukel of Royal Oak. Immediately following a reception at Glen Oaks Country Club, the newlyweds left for Fort Lauderdale, Fla. They will make their home in Evanston, Ill.

Clean leather belts, etc., by washing with mild soap suds, then rinsing with a cloth wrung out of clear water. Dry well, then rub lightly with any wax polish on a clean cloth.
