Open Houses Flourish During Holiday Season

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

Since the holidays seem to be synonymous with friends and good cheer, many choose to entertain the open-house way at this time of year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell of Sleepy Hollow Lane had their open house last night which was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shurtie, the Dan Baringmanes, Bud and Jean Gregory, the William Coatsworths, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoerdt, Mr. and Mrs. Rand Ostund, the Charles Gleasons, the William Russells, the Frank Millers, Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. John Stumac, the Jim McCulloughs, the Richard Wellings, Dolph and Nancy Neeme, the Robert Brownings, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fitchow and the Michael Hourans.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Schimpke of Plumwood are entertaining 36 friends at an open house on Saturday. Among their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hummon, Jack and Gloria Bush, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Champagne, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Passino, the Ted Shurtieffs, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cumberley.

John and Marion Barth of East Rutland will also be having an open house on Saturday where neighbors will be able to meet their block captains, since John is the newly elected president of the Beverly-Artesian Improvement Association.

TWO CHRISTMAS coffees were given recently in the Beverly 12 area at which old and new neighbors had an opportunity to meet.

Mrs. Earl Chessman of Mayfair Lane, assisted by Mrs. A. P. Liszak, entertained 18 women while Mrs. Richard Whittington, Mrs. Murray Triplett, both of Inglewood Drive, cohosted a similar affair in their immediate area.

An authentic Chinese dinner prepared by Fon and Helen Lim of Berkeley will be enjoyed by their fellow square dancers at the Robert Cook residence on Lahser Road Saturday night, where square dancing and rounds will occupy the rest of the evening.

Twelve gaily costumed couples are expected, among them Conrad and Bessie Dahl of Beverly Hills who will call the rounds, the Bernard Smiths of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell of Plymouth, and the Bruce McLanies and Tony Gebelis of Royal Oak.

MICHAEL FITZGIBBONS, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzgibbons of Cobblestone Court flew from Stantun Military Academy at Staunton, Va., last week.

He was met at the airport by his parents, then all continued on to Ypsi to pick up brother Tom who is a freshman there.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Van Eveyer of Smallwood Court will be having very special guests—Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coulter, of Bentleyville, Pa., who arrived yesterday to spend their first Christmas in Beverly Hills.

The Merry-makers Dance Club had their annual Christmas dinner dance at Red Run Country Club last Saturday evening where several Beverly Hills couples were seen amid the tuxedoed and beautifully gowned crowd.

A HOUSEWARMING that was really a surprise was given for the Don Borgeseons who moved from Riverside Drive to their brand new home on Evergreen Road two weeks ago and as they were moving in, friends from Birmingham popped in to brighten things up.

The girls, Bonnie, Brooke, and Laurie, have been ice skating and having fun on the River Rouge which runs through their backyard and anticipate more good times in the summer months as well.

The Borgeseons will be entertaining relatives from Toledo, Grand Rapids, and Bay City over the holidays, with 28 in for Christmas dinner.

MEMBERS OF THE Valley Woods Garden Club had their Christmas party luncheon recently at the home of Mrs. Hans Fredrickson, Bellvue Trail, which was attended by 22 women.

Gifts which they had made themselves were exchanged and all wore decorative Christmas hats which they had whipped up for the occasion.

Creators of the two prize-winning hats were Mrs. Fred Polidan of Orchard Lane Road and Mrs. Olaf Kroneman of Eastlady Drive.

Mrs. Russell Seeburger was chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Gerald Joyn, Mrs. James Severy, Mrs. Albert Schweitzer and Mrs. Frederickson, who made the flower arrangements.

A CHRISTMAS luncheon in Huntley last week also served as a farewell party when Mrs. Walter Fabolak of Pickwick Lane invited several friends in to share her hospitality.

Guests included Mrs. Lloyd Backart, Mrs. E. S. Hannum, Mrs. Don LaSage, Mrs. Paul Rose, Mrs. Richard Seiwert, Mrs. Mary Christie, Mrs. C. V. Larch, and Mrs. Norman Bodine who said their goodbyes to Anne Hughes who left for New Jersey on Friday.
