Local young people home from colleges across the country rallied to Orchard Lake Country Club Saturday night for a party as gay as New Year's Eve. Opera gloves, dinner jackets and a receiving line keyed the formality of the occasion, fun revolving around buffet dinner, dancing and a stag line which made every gal feel like a queen. The club was resplendent with holiday decorations, tables centered by frosted tinsel trees and hurricane lamps; ballroom and lounge pine-scented by great swags of Christmas greens. Response of parents as well as students to this type of party made Saturday's event a third annual, only change of format being in the title: Spinsters' Ball rather than the Bachelor's Cotillion of former years. Each girl invited one guest-escort, boys inviting no one. Cochairmen of the annual event were Mrs. Ralph Getsinger and Mrs. John R. Livingston.

Early Deadlines Next Issue

Offices of The Birmingham Eccentric will be closed on New Year's Day, Jan. 1. They will be open, however, on Saturday, Jan. 2.

Because of the holiday, early deadlines will be observed.

Therefore, all advertisers and news contributors are asked to submit their copy as early as possible for the Jan. 7 issue.

The Birmingham Eccentric extends the greetings of the season to everyone.
