Festive Plans Keep DAC'ers On the Jump

There's been a big choice of activity for members of the Detroit Athletic Club over the New Year holiday week end.

And many DAC'ers have taken advantage of the trek westward which placed them in Los Angeles on the eve of the Rose Bowl game.

The DAC flight in a chartered Boeing 707 jet got off the ground on Tuesday for the City of the Angels, where most of the group are staying at the newly decorated Ambassador Hotel.

Among those from the Bloomfield-Birmingham area who signed up early for the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Perring, Clarence Otter, Charles Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Burton, the Ed Pughs, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Blas, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Sperscheider.

STAY-AT-HOME DAC members are anticipating the club's traditional New Year's Eve party which, as always, will be a gay affair carrying over into the wee hours of the newly dawning New Year's Day.

Black tie, of course, the evening will start with dinner in the main dining and Georgian rooms; dancing in the Pontchartrain Room to the music of Freddie Busch and his orchestra, and all of the accompanying items — fancy hats and noisemakers—for a suitable welcome for 1965.

Then, there's the breakfast buffet. Literally everything from soup to nuts at the fingertips of the guests, who descend on the club kitchens for this informal climax.

Area people with reservations for the New Year's Eve party include John W. Jacobs, James M. Gillen, George Mayhew, Louis S. Morse, Daniel A. Packard, D. W. Sherman, Robert Winter, Robert T. Gill and Phillip R. Flanders.
