Holiday Celebrations Make For Pleasant Memories

By ELLI BLAUMAN MI 7-1465

Friends and relatives seem to flow in and out all during the holiday season which also "helps to make the season bright and among the pleasant memories of the years to come will be the celebrations such as the one given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Semak of Coryell Drive.

They are their children David, Kathleen, Curtis and Jeffrey, shared their Christmas with other members of their family which included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mike, Joseph Semak, Frank Grab, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lasko, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Semak, all of Detroit, and a total of 17 children.

Or the Christmas Eves of Dr. and Mrs. Roswell Burroughs of Auburn Drive which find Christine playing the piano, Roslyn the violin and Mrs. Burroughs the organ. Mrs. Burroughs also had 16 members of the P.E.O. Sisterhood in last week for their traditional Christmas musicale, at which she also played the organ while Mrs. Harold Dyer of Sheridan Drive led the caroling.

Dr. and Mrs. William Marshall of Riverside Drive had friends including Mr. and Mrs. Hal Thomas, the Owen Halls, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gessamen, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ryden and the Robert Dondersos over for brunch after church on Sunday while Kitty and Brian Schweikart of Plantation Lane invited 20 neighbors in on Tuesday evening for their open house.

MR. AND MRS. Howard Tucker and son Gary of Devonshire Road had Gary's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ray Sells of Pittsburg, Kans., here for one week while Mrs. Agnes Kellerman of Cranston, R. I., is staying in indefinitely with her daughter's family, the Gordon McBauns, also of Devonshire Road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson of Cedar Hollow in Georgetown invited the Duke Gilberts, the Glenn Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Houston, Bill and Mary Basse, and the Richard Lhyles in last Sunday. The men watched the NFL championship game while the women visited and a buffet dinner was served later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brady of 691 Post Road hosted their traditional open house for friends last Sunday afternoon and among the 30 guests were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. John Parks, all of Beverly Hills.

Mrs. David A. Wesley of Devonshire had a full house for Christmas when she opened her doors to daughter Barbara and her husband James L. Mansfield of Ann Arbor, Jim's parents the Joseph Mansfields of Hartford, Ind., daughter Mary and her husband Jack Souder and their three children of Bloomfield Township, and Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Souder, also of Devonshire Road.

ALSO PARTICIPATING in the true spirit of Christmas were the Junior Girl Scouts of Troops 366 and 788 at Valley Woods School who recently visited the Southfield Nursing Home where they sang carols and recited poetry for the patients with their leaders Mrs. Robert Henning and Mrs. Arthur Bost.

The girls, who memorized and recited the poems, were Gwendolyn Harriman, Susan Henning, Susan Kann, Elizabeth Savage and Ann Bauer.

The Cub Scouts of Pack 1015 at the same school also joined in the fun when they trimmed a tree with ornaments they had made for the children at the Pontiac State Hospital, and each pack member gave a gift as well.

The 26 girls of Cadette Troop 933 at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs School donated money from their troop treasury to purchase a complete Christmas dinner including an 18 lb. turkey, plus groceries for one week for a needy area family.

The girls and their leaders Mrs. Robert C. Shaughtnessy and Mrs. Harry Kirk also saw that there were gifts for the children of the house.

MR. AND MRS. William Wyckoff of Madison Road returned just before Christmas from several days in Chicago and a side trip to downstate Illinois where they visited Bill's parents, the Harlan B. Wyckoffs and his sister's family, the James Hagers.

The New Year will be ushered in with several parties, including the one cohosted by Mr. and Mrs. William Gilmore and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Howe of Cranbrook Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barker of West Rutland have also invited several couples in to celebrate and last week hosted a party for all the Santa's helpers in their area.

On Saturday the Kenneth Rydens of Riverside Drive will entertain 25 members of their ham radio group at an open house.

PRIZE-WINNING letters to Santa written by children in the Beverly-Artesian section of Beverly Hills were by Denise Dasher, Candy Brown, Jill Wicks, Sheila Garred, Susan Henderson, Nancy Barth, Heather Bowman, Carol Mann, Robert Henderson, Steven Cass, James Cass, Dennis Koster and Mike Barth.

Judged to have the loveliest outdoor Christmas decorations by the Beverly Greenfield Improvement Association were W. B. Werner of 15622 Amherst Drive, Howard W. Riemann of 16124 Loebster, Arthur Karnoy of 32480 Sheridan Drive and Cash B. Hawley of 13639 Auburn Drive.

Judith Lucas Weds Edward B. Foley

Judith Anne Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack B. Lucas of Rivenook Road, Birmingham, walked up the aisle of Holy Name Church Monday evening to become the bride of Edward Blair Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foley of Eastlady Drive, Birmingham.

The bride wore a classically styled gown of cameo ivory coronation satin combined with Alenon lace. The little fitted bodice, traced with the floral lace creating an Empire jacket effect, was designed with petal scalloped decolletage, mid-length lace sleeves and traditional buttons down the back.

BELOW THE narrow lifted waistline, the skirt blended from a cluster of pleats on either side and swept to a court train accented by lace medallions. A circlet of crystal and jeweled petals held her tiered veil of silk illusion, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white camellias, stephanotis and holly.

Marie Lucas was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Arleta Evans of Alpena; Nancy Buck of Darien, Conn., and Nancy Collins of Birmingham. Another sister, Debbie Lucas, was flower girl.

They were all dressed alike in floor-length ivory crepe with sage green velvet bodices, wore pill boxes of holly and carried white poinsettias and holly.

JOSEPH GREY was best man, and seating the guests were John Lucas, brother of the bride; Washburn Wright of Grrosse Pointe; Thomas Westrate of Birmingham and John Connolly of Flint.

Following a reception at the Village Women's Club, the couple left on a ski trip to northern
