

A Family Affair

MISS BOUGHNER

MISS SANBORN

There was lots of romance waiting back and forth between two families over Christmas, with two engagements announced simultaneously.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Boughner of Wedgewood Drive, Birmingham, revealed the betrothal of their daughter, Janice Lynn, to Michael Sanborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Sanborn, Jr., of Kenmore Drive, Birmingham. At the same time, the Sanborns announced the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn, to Thomas C. King, son of the Richard C. Kings of Inkster Road, Birmingham.

Janice and David, both graduates of Seaborn High School, are currently attending the University of Michigan.

Carolyn is a sophomore at Michigan State. Her fiancé is in the Michigan National Guard.

Neither couple has set a wedding date.

Bloomfield Students Go Hawaiian

It was Christmas in Hawaii at Bloomfield Hills High School Tuesday, Dec. 22, as Mrs. Josephine Levett and her home ec students (75 girls and boys) made it so.

Authenticity reigned from the beginning, with gaily colored invitations with the greeting "Mele Kaulomaka" which in part read: "They say it isn't Christmas without ice and snow, but in Paradise we know it isn't so!"

The Home Ec Room was transformed into an Hawaiian setting. Student talent was abundant not only in the artistic field, but in the culinary arts as well. One long wall had painted on it a beautiful beach scene giving a feeling of really hearing the pounding surf.

MRS. LEVETT and her students greeted the faculty and administrative staff in true island fashion—a lei around the neck, a kiss on the cheek. And inside were dancing girls, Fat Colby and Gloria Slaughter, bare feet, hula skirts, graceful hand gestures.

A long buffet table was centered with fruits of the world banked high with gaily decorated candies and pineapples sprayed with gold and sequins.

Real Hawaiian leis and orchards were flown in from

Mrs. Lou Love Star Attraction

When members of the Birmingham Woman's Club gather for their first meeting of the new year Tuesday, Jan. 5, they will hear Mrs. Lou Love present in costume "Aunt Lou at the Seelbach Hotel." Mrs. Love is well known in the Detroit area for her readings.

Hostesses for the 12:30 p.m. dessert tea at the Birmingham Community House will be members of executive board, assisted by Mrs. Landon B. Boyd, Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Thomas P. Gordon.

When washing washable leather gloves, use lukewarm water and a mild soap. Do not rinse too much. Some soap left in gloves will keep the leather soft.

Hawaii (a parent's kind gesture). The girls in mau maus and the boys as beachcombers helped serve the exotic dishes, at the same time giving out the names and ingredients of the Polynesian foods.

The menu included many Polynesian recipes such as pork lau lau's, with ginger curry sauce, two-tone rice with spices, lime mint salmon, sweet potato banana bake, beef and lobster brochettes with charon sauce, pineapple meat balls in a sweet-sour sauce, mandarin orange soufflé garnished with frosted grapes and mandarin oranges.

To Speak Nuptial Vows

At an open house given in their home Dec. 27, Mr. and Mrs. Judge W. Bearden of Tottenham Road, Birmingham, announced the engagement of their daughter, Susan Jane, to Lt. John Francis McNamara, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roman M. McNamara of Rockville Centre, Long Island, N.Y. A graduate of the Academy of the Sacred Heart, Bloomfield Hills, the bride-elect is currently a senior at Newton College of the Sacred Heart in Boston. Her fiancé is a graduate of Boston College and presently is in the United States Marine Corps stationed at Camp LeJeune, N. C. A summer wedding is planned.

To Be June Bride

A June 27 wedding in Bluffton, Ind., is planned by Mary Jo Thompson, daughter of the David S. Thompsons of Bluffton, and Don Frederic Carlson, son of the Glen A. Carlsons of Bloomfield Hills. The bride-elect is a senior at Indiana University, where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Eta, honorary; IU Foundation and the Student Athletic Board. Her fiancé is also a senior at Indiana University, majoring in business administration. He, too, is a member of the Student Athletic Board and IU. His fraternity is Sigma Chi.
