LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Theme of Church Party To Be 'Hearts and Arts'

BY GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

"Hearts and Arts" is the theme of the party to be held at the Northbrook Presbyterian Church on Feb. 14. The combined card party and art show will be sponsored by the Mariners Group.

The art show is open to all artists or "would-be" artists even if you paint by number. Dessert and coffee will be served. Mrs.
Harry Kirk of Bainbridge is taking reservations.

MEMBERS OF the Village Dance Club danced and enjoyed a midnight buffet last Friday evening in the midst of a Mardi Gras decor. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Beas were chairmen of the decorating of the Knights of Columbus Hall on Southfield Road where the group meets five times a year.

Guests of last Friday's dance were the James Hudnuta, guests of the Robert McMillans; the Edward Nolans, guests of the Douglas Lambourns; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Penberthy, guests of chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Don Forrest; Mrs. Norma Pett attended with James Moor; and the Vern Plancks came with the Melvin Humphreys.

Others included Mr. and Mrs.
Neil Mahaney, who were guests of the Daniel Recks; the Tony Barones were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosale; the Robert Paynes came with the Jack Howards and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Can-ham were hosts to two couples, the Arthur Mitchells and the Leo Browns.

MR. AND MRS. J. T. Canan have returned to their Sunset Road home following a 10-day trip to Phoenix, Ariz., and Las Vegas, Nev. While in Phoenix, Mr. Canan attended the annual sales meeting of the Lincoln-Mercury Division.

Young Tom, 3½, stayed at home with his grandmother, Mrs.
J. C. Rogers who arrived from her home in Knoxville, Tenn., a week before the Canans departed for a visit with the whole family.

ANOTHER TRAVELLER recently returned is Judy Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Cross of Bainbridge. Judy was visiting her grandparents, the Leo F. McInerneys at their Ft.
Lauderdale home.

During her stay, Judy had quite a close call. When she was swimming in the ocean one day she unknowingly swam into a school of Man of War but was rescued by her companion.

On Monday evening, Feb. 10, Cub Scout Pack 1685 will hold their annual Blue and Gold Banquet at the Community Congregational Church. Pack 1685 is sponsored by the PTA of Northbrook School.

IF YOU GOT past the pretty face of Lynn Stern on the Sunday magazine section of a Detroit newspaper you noted a very good looking boat. The lucky owners are Dr. and Mrs. John Bryan of Rock Creek Drive. The Bryans' boat, the "Rebel," will appear at both the forthcoming boat shows.

When we all begin to think about boating, summer doesn't seem quite so far away even if "Mr. Groundhog" tricked us again this year.
