

Garden Club to Hear Talk on Sweden

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0056

The Bloomfield Farms branch of the Women's National Park and Garden Association will hold its next meeting on Wednesday.

It will be highlighted by a visit from Mr. Thomas Thornburn, a member of the "100" (International Foreign Youth Exchange) program.

Mr. Thornburn, a resident of Mason, Mich., and at the present time a student at Michigan State University, spent many months in Sweden during 1963 living among the people in the rural areas, studying their methods of farming and other phases of agriculture.

HE WILL RELATE to the ladies of the Berkshire Branch his experiences and learning while overseas. The meeting, which is to be held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Hoeble on E. Dartmouth, will carry out the international theme in its decorations and refreshments, dwelling on Sweden.

The table decoration will be constructed by Mrs. James Steele. Cocktails will be Mrs. Robert J. Hoffman and Mrs. William Caldwell. The women are being asked at this time to make tentative plans to attend the Ways and Means project of the branch which will be a salad buffet and card party to be held on Tuesday, March 17 at the home of Mrs. Hoyt Anderson, 7348 Lindemere.

Chairman of the party will be Mrs. Gerald Dickson, who has also arranged to have a showing of spring hats which may be purchased by those attending the party.

BY FAR ONE of the most unusual art instructors and lecturers is Mr. Arthur Burgess, a native of Wales, British Isles. Mr. Burgess celebrated his 90th birthday in October, yet is still quite active in his field.

At the present time he is lecturing as he demonstrates at the home of Mrs. Joseph McNeerney of Westbourne Drive for the women in the Westchester area who are interested in painting. He will be there on Tuesday.

MRS. WILLIAM Millard of Wobank Drive and Mrs. Fredrick Betz of Birmingham cohosted a bridge and champagne luncheon at the Mikulas home on Jan. 29, having as their guest of honor Mrs. Clayton Findley, who will soon be moving to Philadelphia.

On hand to say "farewell" were Mrs. Stephenweeney, Mrs. John Shipley, Mrs. James Grier, Mrs. Stan Nettles and Mrs. Godfrey Stone.

Others present were Mrs. Howard Springer, Mrs. Edward Bush and Mrs. John Fortman. The women presented Mrs. Findley with a gift of Irish Black china.

ON THE OTHER HAND, Mrs. William Mollison of Westbourne Drive welcomed a new neighbor, Mrs. John Fowler, and presented her to their neighbors at a coffee held in the Mollison home on Jan. 24 at 10 a.m.

Guests on hand to say "hello" were Mrs. Robert Messer, Mrs. Dale Goveert, Mrs. David Hakebeck, Mrs. Vernon Miller and Mrs. Duane Waggener. Also invited were Mrs. Lyle Perry, Mrs. Hugh McVeigh and Mrs. Richard Yates.

HAVING MORE than three cars parked in front of your home seems to indicate something is taking place inside. Thus it was noticed when Mrs. Ronald Fitter of Berkshire Drive hosted her church circle group one day a week ago, Mrs. Fitter entertained 18 women for dessert and coffee.

(A badminton club which is entering its 31st year of playing has this year its first women president. She is Mrs. Kenneth Daniels of Berkshire Drive. The group now has a membership of over 100 and plays at the Cranbrook School three nights a week.

IT WILL BE cocktails at 4 p.m. at the home of the Timothy Cruises on E. Breckenridge for 10 couples who are joining the throng who will attend the world's largest indoor picnic to be staged at Cobo Hall on Saturday.

The event is being called the Leaders Potluck Dinner and will be attended by the world's largest Boy Scout Council, some 6,500 leaders and their ladies.

The program is designed to recognize their leadership for some 62,000 Boy Scouts in this area. Representing Troop 1066 and some guests at the cocktail party will be Mr. and Mrs. William Busch, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Stagger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Neill, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Chaput, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson.

After partaking of a picnic lunch sans insect, the audience will be entertained by James Whittaker who was the first American to conquer Mr. Everest. He will be the feature speaker and will also show color slides of his adventure.

A NEWCOMERS tea is being held by the Altar Society of the St. Regis Parish today from 1 to 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. August Larson 21275 Bingham Road. Any woman who is not at the present time a member of the society and is a newcomer in the area is cordially invited to the tea.

Among the guests at the recent Brother Rice dinner dance held at Northwood Inn on Jan. 25 were Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Mason. Mrs. Mason was named Mrs. America in 1962. The Masons and their family are now residents of this area.

IT ISN'T EVERY day that one receives an invitation to spend a week in England as guests of nobility. Mr. and Mrs. George MacDuff of Shadow Lane left on Jan. 6 via Trans-Atlantic Airways to fly to London, England, where they were guests of Sir Edward Lewis, president of the London Record Co.

MacDuff is a representative of the record company in this country. While in London they stayed at the Mayfair House and were entertained at the Ed Mundross Supper Club.

Mary Sue Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stuart Wilson of Valley Springs Drive, a second-year student at the University of Colorado, has been named to the dean's list.

YOUNG TOMMY Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Graham of Westbourne Drive, was bitten by the creative spirit and designed his own birthday invitations which his family helped him to construct.

He celebrated his 10th birthday on Feb. 1 with a group of school "buddies." Attending his party were Terry McNeerney, Steve Meyer, Robert Byrnes, Martin Tata and Ricky Vastin.

Others were Bobby Johnson, Richard Barkley, James Howell and Roger Nelson. It was a bonus birthday gift when Tommy's dad arrived home from a European business trip in time to help celebrate his birthday with him.

Sailor's New Rank Is Medic, 3/C

James L. Wheatley, hospital corpsman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. LeRoy Wheatley of 1879 Maryland Street, Birmingham, was promoted to his present rank while serving with the staff of the U.S. Naval Hospital, Great Lakes, Ill.

Wheatley, who entered the service in July 1960, is a graduate of Birmingham High School.

Christ Church Scene Of Nuptial Ceremony

Virginia Stirling Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eugene Cross of Detroit, walked up the aisle of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday to become the bride of Fred Lowe Woodworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lowe Woodworth of Dorchester Road, Birmingham.

were John Archangeli; Roger Alcaiy of New York City; Richard S. Cross, brother of the bride; Joseph Fremont, a cousin of the bridegroom; Philip Elia of Boston, Mass.; Timothy Evers of Glenbrook, Conn., and David Roll of Ann Arbor.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given at the Village Woman's Club, where Mrs. Cross greeted her guests in a gown of turquoise petit point silk designed with a jacket, slim skirt and overblouse beaded in turquoise, cranberry and crystal. Mrs. Woodworth chose aquamarine antique satin, made with a slim skirt, sleeveless bodice and beaded trim.

The newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor.
