Susan Jane Peters In Party Whirl

Preceding her marriage in Christ Church Cranbrook March 7, Susan Jane Peters, daughter of Robert G. Peters, Jr., of Birmingham and the late Mrs. Peters, is being honored at numerous pre-nuptial parties. Susan's fiance is William H. Thomas, son of the Robert Alan Thomas of Foxcroft. Wednesday evening, Mrs. Calvin Patterson of Foxcroft entertained at a dinner and kitchen shower in her home, and on Feb. 29 Mrs. Charles Webster of Birmingham and Mrs. William Kiefer will be co-hostesses at a luncheon and linen shower in the latter's home in Detroit.

Mrs. RALPH MANUEL and Mrs. Frank O. Riley, both of Bloomfield Hills, will honor Susan on March 2 at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower at the DAC, to be followed March 4 by an around-the-clock shower given by Mrs. Burt Schmidt in her home on Tottenham Road. Bill's parents will give the reception dinner March 6 at the Detroit Club. Because Mrs. Jack Lawrence of Lake Park, Birmingham, will leave shortly to spend the rest of the season in Pompano Beach, Fla., she and daughter Judy will entertain at the spinner dinner ahead of time, March 1.

Judy, who is Susan's maid of honor, will be among those present when the bride-elect entertains at a dinner party Feb. 22 for her attendants. Other guests will include Mrs. Carl Pendrock, matron of honor; Deanne Degener and Nancy Jeffrey.

SUSAN'S AUNT and uncle, the Walter Jeffreys of Dayton, O., will honor the bride couple at a cocktail party in Birmingham on Tuesday, Feb. 11. The play, directed by Mrs. Elmer Craig and Mrs. Richard Cogger of Lathrup, concerns the problems of a social worker and family problems. A discussion followed. They play will again be presented on March 19 at Lederle School for the PTA. The Feb. 6 meeting of the Southfield Optimists consisted of a demonstration of life-saving techniques by a representative of the Red Cross. New member in attendance was Herbert H. Klinker of Charles Court, Southfield.

LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Local Residents Return From Visits to South, East

By GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

Two Cranbrook Village families have returned home following trips in two different directions.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schmidt of Autumn Lane have returned from a three-week vacation in Florida. They drove to New Port Richey for a visit with Mr. Schmidt's parents and then on to Miami Beach and Key Largo before returning to wintery Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. G. Parker Inman have returned to their Westbrook Parkway home after a six-week visit in the east. They spent the Christmas holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myers of Taunton, Mass.

Mrs. Inman continued her stay, visiting other relatives, while Mr. Inman returned to Michigan. He joined Mrs. Inman again and they returned together last Saturday.

LAST SATURDAY evening, the gentlemen of the Lathrup Men's Bowling League squired their ladies to Devon Gables for a dinner-dance. Fourteen teams make up the league and approximately 80 couples attended the affair.

Candlewood Lane has two newcomers. One is the James Murray family and the other is little Marc Edward Lorenzetti.

Marc was born on Jan. 19 to Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Lorenzetti. He weighed 8½ pounds. He joined his sisters, Michele, Cristina and Nicole who are very thrilled at having a little brother. Two other ladies who are delighted are the proud grandmothers, one of Detroit and the other of Venice, Italy.

THE JAMES MURRAY family moved in one month ago. They are residing at 29235 Candlewood Lane in Cranbrook Village. Jimmy, 4½, Susan, 2½, and Bobby, 7 months, complete the family.

Mrs. Murray is originally from Detroit and attended Eastern Michigan College. Mr. Murray is from Ferndale. He attended the University of Michigan and is a graduate of Wayne University. He is a sales engineer for Murray equipment.

The Murrays enjoy bridge and bowling in their leisure time. Mrs. Murray was the honored guest at a recent evening coffee given by her neighbor, Mrs.

Michael Celovsky, also of Candlewood Lane.

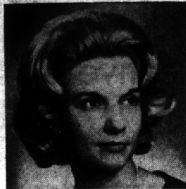

THE "EYE of the Hurricane," a one-act play by Nora Stirling, was presented for East Southfield PTA on Tuesday, Feb. 11. The play, directed by Mrs. Elmer Craig and Mrs. Richard Cogger of Lathrup, concerns the problems of a social worker and family problems. A discussion followed. They play will again be presented on March 19 at Lederle School for the PTA. The Feb. 6 meeting of the Southfield Optimists consisted of a demonstration of life-saving techniques by a representative of the Red Cross. New member in attendance was Herbert H. Klinker of Charles Court, Southfield.

Betrothed

Susan Kay Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson of Berkshire Road, Bloomfield Township, is betrothed to Herman A. Meinke, son of Mrs. Herman A. Meinke of Huntington Woods and the late Dr. Meinke. Susan is a graduate of Mercy College in Detroit and is presently attending the University of Michigan. Her fiance attended the Detroit Institute of Technology and Lawrence Institute. The pair has set June 6 as the date of their marriage to take place in St. Hugo of the Hills Church.

Looking Ahead

A May wedding is being planned by Barbara Broadwell and William Michel of Grosse Pointe. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Helen M. Broadwell of Birmingham and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Michel of Cincinnati, O. Miss Broadwell attended Michigan State University and Mr. Michel is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Theta Fraternity.

Midvale Parents Hear Doctors

The Midvale PTA scheduled a medical panel which discussed sex education at their Feb. 12 meeting.

Dr. Philip J. Laux, Jr., Dr. Charles F. Payton and Dr. William Peirce, all pediatricians in the Birmingham area, discussed the parents' responsibility in educating their children. Mrs. Pell Hollingshead was chairman for the meeting.

Plans are also being made by the PTA for the "Family Flip," a pancake supper slated for Feb. 26 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Midvale multi-purpose room. Mrs. Chalmers Brown, 463 Golfview, will handle reservations for the event.
