Turn About Is Fair Play

by MARTI CARN

During her husband's absence on a business trip to Florida, Mrs. Willie T. Higley of Bloomfield Hills used the occasion to visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McKnight of Williamsport.

Florida business provided the occasion for Bill Higley to visit many Birmingham residents, including Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., who are vacationing at their North Palm Beach Shores home.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wand, settled in their home overlooking the eighteenth hole of the Atlanta Golf Course, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Hard, who are enjoying their co-op apartment in the Hillside Imperial, Hillside Beach.

Mr. Higley was among guests of Birmingham residents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Bull at a cocktail party aboard the Caronia, cruise ship docked at Port Everglades.

PEGGY AND ALBERT deSalle celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary at a cocktail party given in their St. Moritz Hotel suite during their recent visit to New York City.

The celebration continued with a champagne dinner at D'Argenteuil's. Those present were Marshall Fredericks, Joe Dvorak and Glen Michaels of Birmingham.

Mr. Michaels was visiting New York for the purpose of installing one of his mosaic murals in the Israeli Travel Bureau, Rockefeller Center. Others attending the celebration were William Wolfenden of Detroit; William S. Kiser, N. Y. and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Goldstein of New York City.

MR. AND MRS. Louis L. Szep (he's manager of Oakland Hills C. C.) of Birmingham made a brief visit recently to Dallas, Tex., having accepted an invitation to attend the Abbot's Blessing conferred on Father Anselm

MR. AND MRS. SZEP
A. Nagy, 50 East Abbot Nagy's friendship with Mr. Szep dates back to when both attended a Hungarian gymnasium school.

The Szeps returned to Birmingham to repack and depart for Honolulu, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Horigian and daughter Elaine.

The two-week island visit was highlighted by a tea party given by the Island's Gov. and Mrs. Burns at the Governor's Mansion—a reception to meet and greet American Club Managers and their wives.

On the evening before the tea, Mr. Szep met His Excellency quite by accident.

The Szeps and Horigians attended a cocktail and press party at the new Kahala Hilton Hotel as guests of Robert Burns, vice president and manager. The Swiss affair was attended by many notable, including Conrad Hilton and entourage.

As the Birmingham group departed, wishing to thank his host, Mr. Szep requested an attendant to locate Mr. Burns. As a plausible error, the attendant led him to Mr. Burns, the Governor, instead of Mr. Burns, the manager.

Mrs. Szep reports a charming island custom which honors newlyweds and wedding anniversary couples. On the evening of the anniversary the honored couple are greeted in their hotel room by a fresh orchid blossom bed canopy, a silver tray holding two sparkling glasses and a bottle of chilled vintage champagne. The Szeps were so honored Feb. 2, date of their wedding anniversary.

Sisters Meet Shawn
The three Moloney girls—Gwyn, Cynthia and Kathleen—were joined by a new sister, Shawn Kelly, on Jan. 26. Proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moloney (Ann Alexandroff) of 4400 Chisholm Trail, Birmingham.

Rites Unite Area Couple At St. James

Susan Jane Plasko became the bride of Robert Medeiros on Jan. 25 at a double ring ceremony at St. James Episcopal Church in Birmingham.

Parents of the newbrides are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Plasko, formerly of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Medeiros of Southfield.

FOR HER wedding, the bride wore a bell-shaped gown fashioned of Venetian lace. Her deep-pearl embroidered pillow handpiece secured her short tulle veil.

A cousin of the bride, Linda Knoll, served as maid of honor, while a niece of the bride, Lori Sue Plasko, was flower girl. They wore pale blue gowns and carried soft yellow flowers.

The groom asked Don Gerbich of Southfield to serve as best man. Ushers included Robert Plasko Jr., brother of the bride, and Barry Knoll, cousin of the bride.

Cranbrook Branch Sets Busy Pace
Cranbrook Branch of WNTGA had a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. W. R. Barrett on Feb. 3. The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. J. P. Carritte on "Flowers of the Bible."

Hostesses were Mrs. E. W. Ivoy, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. Walter F. Kuckelman.

The March 2 meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Raymond Cragin. The program will be a talk by Mrs. Newell Allen, her subject to be "For Land Sakes Conserve and Preserve Natural Resources." Tea will be served by hostesses Mrs. Russell Norris, Mrs. Henry Sandrock, Mrs. Ben F. Glowacki and Mrs. S. E. Dalton.

GET WHAT YOU PAY FOR THE MEAT IN THE MEAT

You Can See It... You Can Taste It!

The EAT in the MEAT makes "Super-Right" your best buy shows up in a way you can see. You see it in the grain-fed beef steaks and hearty rib roasts that have the scateful fat and bone trimmed away. You see it in the bright color of the freshly ground beef that's not loaded with "shrink-away" fat. You'll see it where it counts — in the meat you serve your family — in your budget, too!

The EAT in the MEAT that A&P promises, starts long before you see it, however. It begins with A&P selections from the nation's top packers. They know "Super-Right's" strict quality standards for beef, pork, lamb, veal and poultry. And our buyers know that if every pound can't be guaranteed — it's not "Super-Right" quality.
