

Brownie Troops Give Talent Shows

By ELANOR NELSEN
MI 1-0466

Two Brownie Scout troops in the Westchester area are having a wonderful time these days entertaining each other with talent shows.

On Feb. 5 Troop 615, under the leadership of Mrs. Engles, played host to Troop 234, at Westchester School. The girls of Troop 615 were completely uninhibited in their display of dancing, singing and all forms of show business.

On Feb. 12 the scene was reversed and the troops gathered at the home of Mrs. Wolcott Hall on Berkshire Drive where Troop 234 entertained. There was an Indian act, hula dance, ball twirler and puppet act among the acts by the 18 girls in the troop.

PRE-NUPTIAL parties for Miss Patricia Davy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Davy, Jr., of Wadsworth Drive, are in full swing these days. Miss Davy, who is to be married in March, was honored at a linen shower hosted by Mrs. Basil Pardee of Bedford on Jan. 24.

A miscellaneous shower was cohosted by Maxine Price and Beth Linson in the Price home in Detroit on Feb. 3. Members of the bridal party and friends paid tribute to Miss Davy with many lovely gifts.

THE ROBERT Jacobites family of Westbourne Court is really involved in modeling.

All five of the children, Donald, 17, a student at Catholic Central High School; Dianne, 15, a Marian High student; Dennis, 12, Dianne, 10 and the youngest member of the family Donna Lynn, 6, all students at St. Regis grade school; have appeared as photographic models for national magazines as well as fashion models.

They have also appeared on live television and have modeled in Florida while on vacation there. Occasionally Mom and Dad get into the picture when the advertising calls for a family group.

Once again the Nick Mitchells of S. Cranbrook Cross opened their home for the yearly Kiwanis party which was held on Saturday, February 8. Approximately 40 of the Kiwanis members and their ladies attended.

MR. AND MRS. William Peterson of S. Cranbrook Cross arrived home after the first of February after spending five weeks on the west coast.

On their drive through the southwestern states they stopped in Phoenix, Ariz., to visit with former friends from Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Chase.

The Petersons also stopped at Hoover Dam. After arriving in California they stayed with Mrs. Peterson's sister, Miss Caroline Bell, in Santa Monica. Disneyland was also on their agenda of places to visit.

MR. AND MRS. Richard Hallock of Halvard celebrated their 25th anniversary by invited 50 of their friends to their home on Feb. 1 for a buffet and party.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dittrock (he's head track coach at Michigan State) and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bates, also from Lansing. Others attending the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. John Steele, (she was a member of the bridal party), and Miss Mary Thildeman, a godmother to one of the Hallocks' daughters. On Feb. 4 the Hallocks furthered the celebrating by driving to Ann Arbor where their daughter Betty is a student at the University of Mich. They were accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Bremeau of Allen Park, and Mrs. Hallock's mother, Mrs. Florence VanKuren. The entire family then enjoyed dinner at Ruby's and toasted the Hallocks' anniversary and also the fact that Betty has been pledged to the Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

NEW TO the Meadowlark area are Mr. and Mrs. Clark Broadwell who moved to their present address from Rosedale Park the first part of December.

The Broadwells have two sons, Gary, 15, and Dale, 11. Mr. Broadwell is president of the Business Forms Service Co. He is also a past master of Oriental Lodge, F. & A.M. at the Masonic Temple. As members of the Meadowbrook Country Club both the Broadwells enjoy golfing. In fact, it might be said Mr. Broadwell is an avid sportsman. Mrs. Broadwell's hobbies turn to the music world where she enjoys singing and playing the organ.

ALSO NEW to the Meadowlark area are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagstaff of 6770 Halvard Drive, who moved from New York four weeks ago with their daughter, Cynthia, who is 10. Mr. Wagstaff is with Ford Motor Co. in the International Division. His alma mater is Ohio State. The Wagstaffs enjoy bowling, swimming and golfing.

The president of the Cranbrook-Maple Association, Mr. Jules Alfard, called a special meeting of the residents of that area on Feb. 11 at the Westchester school. Mr. Alfard had several recommendations to make to those attending on both civic projects and social events. The meeting began at 8 p.m.

Florida Trip Follows Rites At Holy Name

The newly-wed Mr. and Mrs. Michael Philip McManus left for Florida following their Jan. 18 marriage performed at Holy Name Church in Birmingham.

The bride, the former Priscilla Rita Burnham, wore a bell-shaped pearl de soie floor-length gown accented at the bodice and on the elbow length sleeves with seed pearls. Her tiered veil of silk illusion fell from a petal crown embroidered with matching seed pearls. She carried cascading white roses with stephanotis.

FRANCES MARY Baldwin of Birmingham served as maid of honor, while Charles Hartung of Birmingham was best man. The couple greeted their guests at a reception at Devon Gables. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Hunt of Belmont and Palmouth Cliffs; Mrs. John F. Murphy of Waltham and Haverhill, Mass.; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Ryall of Lexington, Mass.

The couple will make their home in Birmingham.

'Las Vegas Night' Leader from Area

Mrs. Jack Levitt of 3345 Winchester, Birmingham, is one of the chairmen of the Martin Place hospital auxiliary's "Las Vegas Night" program for Feb. 22.

Mrs. Levitt is a ticket chairman for the program for 200 doctors, wives and guests during the fund-raising event to be held at the Park Plaza Motel in Detroit. For the past two years, money raised by the event has been donated to increase the medical library of the two hospitals. Her husband, Dr. Jack Levitt, is medical director of Martin Place Hospital.

Children Join Mothers On Winter Coffee Circuit

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1465

Most of us have neighbors or friends we haven't seen much of since winter set in. Just the thought of bundling up the preschoolers is too much for many of us, even though a cup of coffee and the accompanying chit-chat is worth the effort, once out.

Here's a good way to get together... arrange a mid-winter coffee and include the wee ones as well. It worked out just fine for Mrs. Roger Persons of Locherbie Ave. on a recent Thursday morning.

While Mrs. Murray Cotter, Mrs. Ted Schmitzerle, Mrs. Robert Grierson, Mrs. Russell Kamp, Mrs. Stewart Stevenson, Mrs. Elmer Leechke, Mrs. Kitty Krissig, Mrs. Ralph Atkins, Mrs. Arnold Young, Mrs. Marvin Marsh, Mrs. William Stuart, Mrs. Richard Nigbor and Mrs. Robert Carley visited upstairs, their children were having a party of their own in the basement. Guaranteed to live up to a gray winter day!

Still not out of the party-giving spirit, Mrs. Persons arranged a third birthday celebration for daughter Cindy on Feb. 3. Movies were taken of guests Polly Cotter, Ingrid Anderson, Ginny Grierson, Mark Kamp, Tommy Stevenson and John Nigbor, as well as Cindy and brother, David.
