

A Champion's Reward

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Somers, of 4205 Valley Forge, Birmingham, receives a trophy from Paul Lineham (right), vice-president of the Michigan Harness Horseman's Association, for having the best two-year-old filly pacer in Michigan last year. The Somers' horse, Lady Evergreen, raced in tracks and on the fair circuit around the state en route to piling up enough points to win the trophy. The award was made at the Fort Shelby Hotel during the 43rd annual Award Night.

Recreation Round-Up

SENIOR MEN'S CLUB

Last Monday the men held their monthly visit to the Oakland County Medical Care Facility, where they entertained such wheelchair patients as were able to participate in the program. Fred Grapner is chairman of this committee and is assisted by Herbert Flemington.

Group singing was enjoyed and the program was enhanced by the violin music of Mrs. Chester V. Forch with Mrs. Gordon L. Ellsworth at the piano. Valentines "by Flemington" were given to each patient. On this occasion the men were assisted by their wives.

Next Friday the men, who meet in the Activities Room of the Community House, will view the movie, "Our American Cross Roads." This film is from the library of General Motors Corporation.

CHILDREN'S SWIM CLASSES

THE EXPRESSION on the face of Brother Rice eager Dick Kreuz 55) indicates the results of Friday's game with U. of D. Kreuz could not hold onto a rebound and Rice dropped a 65-54 decision to fall into a three-way tie for first place in the Central Catholic Division. Rice played Notre Dame Wednesday in a game the Warriors had to win in order to stay in contention for the crown.

Bloomfield Open Hunt Elects Four To Board Posts

Four members were elected to serve on the Board of Directors at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Jan. 30 at the Club's 47th annual meeting. Elected to three-year terms were Carl Fischer, Robert Martin, Robert Swata, Jr. and Harold Kohlmeier. The latter was re-elected after having completed a three-year term in 1963, during which time he served as club secretary for two years.

THE 1964 officers named by the Directors are Dan O'Madigan, president; Maynard Andraea, vice-president; Paul Shine, secretary; and Stanley Humphrey, treasurer. John Davis was appointed honorary chairman of the board. Stewart Cram, Colin John, Budd Eichner and Richard Kuschell are members of the board. Albert Clark and Richard Kuschell were appointed Joint Masters of Fox Hounds.

Hockey Standings

CLINIC NEWS
Last Saturday ended the hockey clinic season for the 9 and 10-year-old boys as they defeated their fathers in an informal game. There were over 30 boys registered in the clinic program this year and most of the 10 year olds will be moving up to the Bantam League next season.

BANTAM
The last round of bantam hockey games were held Saturday and climaxed a successful first season for this league of 11, 12 and 13-year-old boys. In the first game, the Red Wings and Bruins tied 2-2 with Morris scoring both goals for the Wings and the Bruins scored by Sheargans and Magill. The second place Black Hawks upset the undefeated Rangers in a fast 4-0 game in which Peters scored 2 goals and O'Neill netted one.

MIDGET
In the first midget hockey game last Saturday, the Yellow Jackets clinched the second place position by defeating the Bulldogs, 2-0. Yellow Jacket goals came in the first period by Kadarian and in the third period by Tarris. As runner-up in the league the Yellow Jackets will represent Birmingham in the Metropolitan Inter-City Tournament to be held in Detroit beginning the third week in February.

In the second game, the first place Green Hornets downed the Bulldogs, 4-0, with goals from Armstrong, Jackson, Kale and O'Connor. As league champions, the Green Hornets will enter the state play-offs with the first game against Allen Park at Birmingham's municipal rink this Saturday at 8 a.m.

JUVENILE
In the juvenile division, the Tigers took the league championship last Saturday with a close 1-0 shutout over the Graveland team. The Tigers dominated the game all the way with Robertson scoring early in the first period. Excellent goal tending by Mike Haley of Graveland kept the score close and the game exciting to its very end.

The second juvenile game was also a thriller with the Varsity Shop edging Birmingham Federal 4-3. Embury got two of the Varsity goals with Rakolta and Varley scoring one each. Scoring for the Federal were Owen, 2, and Herman. The Tigers will represent Birmingham in the state play-offs with the first game being against Dearborn this Saturday at Elton Park at 10:30 a.m. As second-place team, Graveland will enter the Metropolitan Inter-City Tournament at Garden City on Feb. 22.
