Two Area Couples Plan Ski Week in Vermont

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1652

The Robert Farris of Hickory Heights Drive and the Eric Wilshires of Massfield Court will be joining a group of avid skiers for a ski week in Vermont.

The group of nine Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills-Grosse Pointe couples plan to pack their gear and travel "caravan style," stopping at Glen Falls, N. Y., next week end. While in New York they will spend the day skiing in the Adirondacks and at Sugarbush.

AT STOWE, Vt., the Mount-Aire Lodge will be their home while the skiers challenge the surrounding mountains.

The group has been meeting to make its plans during the past two months. The Thomas Sebols of Birmingham entertained at a "get acquainted" cocktail party for the complete group on a recent Saturday evening.

Impromptu meetings have taken place this week completing the last of details. Looking forward to an exciting week are the George Starks, the Walter Simmons and the Richard Kieppes of Birmingham, the Daniel Williams, the Warren Boos and the Richard Boos of Grosse Pointe.

THE DAVID Ehlers and sons, Jeffrey and Steven, of Robinhood Circle have been departing for ski week ends in the north country this winter. They enjoyed the slopes at Boyne Mountain on a recent week end.

On Friday the Ehler family joined friends, the Bruce Wentzels and sons, Steven, Tom and Bruce, who flew from Madison, Wis. for a week end of skiing at the Highlands near Harbor Springs.

THE MERLE Welshes of Fox Run Road decided on a quiet celebration of their 30th wedding anniversary with brunch at the Kingsley Inn on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Welsh was unaware her husband had phoned a group of friends to meet them there in a "surprise celebration" until she was surrounded by the William Charles of Dearborn, the Gerald Heingerfords of Wyandotte, the Nell Talmages and the Warren Woods of Birmingham.

LINDA RANDAU of Far Hill Drive hosted a personal shower honoring a friend, Miss Karen Schmalz of Clawson, on a recent Saturday afternoon.

Linda carried out a pink and white color theme on the table. The centerpiece was an umbrella covered with tiny rosebuds. A pink dessert was served to the 12 Birmingham-Bloomfield friends attending.

Linda was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Karen Schmalz and Julius Cassini in Clawson on Feb. 8.

MRS. NED RANDAU of Far Hill Drive entertained recently at a dessert-bridge for a group of eight Hickory Heights subdivision residents. The group has been meeting monthly for the past three years and include Mrs. John Bryant, Mrs. Frederick Burge, Mrs. Robert Boger, Mrs. Robert Freeburg, Mrs. Dayton Slater, Mrs. Donald Douglas and Mrs. John Uetz.

Hosting the dessert-bridge on Wednesday will be Mrs. Dayton Slater of Spur Hill Drive.

Another area bridge group gathered on Tuesday afternoon at the Morris Shepard home on Far Hill Drive for dessert and bridge. The foursome were Mrs. John Albertson, Mrs. Donald Douglas and Mrs. Ned Randau.

THE CLIFFORD Noltes of Meadowlark Drive invited a group of area friends for dinner last Monday. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wood of Orchard Hill Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Welsh of Fox Run Drive and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nisbet of Rock Spring Road.

Mrs. William Joyce of Whittier Drive will be entertaining at a "farewell morning coffee" for Mrs. Robert Burch of Kenway Drive on Friday. A group of 24 Bloomfield Hills Estates residents, all members of an area bridge club, will be attending and will present Mrs. Burch with a departing gift.

The Burches will be moving into their new home in Toledo, O., in April.

A VALENTINE party was hosted by the Dan Cassinos of Massfield Drive on Saturday evening. Ten area couples were invited to the heart decorated recreation room for dancing, charades and an early morning buffet.

John Ciardi's lecture "What Good Is A Poem?" will bring the last of the Birmingham Town Hall performances to a close for another successful season next week.

After Thursday's lecture, Mrs. Brady Branton will invite her group of 12 Birmingham-Bloomfield friends to return to her home for luncheon and an afternoon of bridge.

Sets Date

Carol Elaine Heym, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Heym of Lathrup Village, is engaged to David Michael Zielinski, son of Mrs. John Zielinski of Kalamazoo and the late Mr. Zielinski. The bride-elect, who has set April 4 as the date of her marriage, was honored for her leading her senior year at Western Michigan in campus activities during the year.

Michigan University. Her fiancé earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Western, where he was affiliated with Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national honorary music fraternity. The couple both teach in Kalamazoo.

Fourteen centuries ago, according to legend, King Khosrau I of Persia had an immense carpet woven for him, using pure gold thread and real diamonds, emeralds and other precious stones. Representing the Royal Garden in Spring, its size was said to be 11,000 square feet and it cost the equivalent of $93,000,000!
