

YMCAers Initiate '64 Area Membership Drive

Some 150 volunteers will pause in their letter-writing to join fellow YMCAers for a spring fashion show at 10:30 p.m., Wed. Feb. 25, at Oakland Branch, YWCA in Clawson.

This first of two branch social events will officially launch the 1964 membership campaign for "Girls Galore" and the "YW Wants More"—the tune of 1,200 among six Metropolitan Detroit branches.

Goal for Oakland branch is 1,400 new or renewed memberships, an increase of 180 over last year. A new innovation in recruiting is the hand-written or typed personal letters to prospects by the service operators and area directors of Mrs. B. John Mitchell, 18184 Kihross, Beverly Hills, branch membership chairman.

OPERATORS, who are penning 25 to 30 letters each, will follow up some with the more traditional phone calls, the subject of their March 10 luncheon meeting.

Mrs. Mitchell will preside at the fashion show, which will open with dessert and a flip-chart presentation of "Our Product" is People, Our Profit—Their Growth" by Dorothy Mignault, Metropolitan Detroit "YW" executive director.

Mrs. Thomas N. Hitchman, Beverly Hills, a member of the Branch Young Homemakers' club, will commentate the fashion show. Birmingham area models include Mrs. Charles R. Copeland and Susan L. Hittner, branch teenage director; and Mrs. Robert M. Chamberlin, Southfield.

Members of the branch Wednesday Afternoon, Bridge club will serve as hostesses.

Price of admission is a "YW" membership, which can be taken out at the branch the day of the show.

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

By MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2582

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jickling, 606 Shepherd, accompanied by Mrs. Jickling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Fairman, 170 Baldwin, spent the weekend of Feb. 8 in Pittsburgh. They visited Mrs. Jickling's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Fairman, Jr., and attended the christening of James Ferdinand Fairman III.

Visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marra, 1606 Haynes, were Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lawrence of Sault Ste. Marie. Mrs. Lawrence is Mrs. Marra's sister.

Several neighbors on Hazel and Bowers got together and went to the luncheon and fashion show at Oakland Hills Country Club sponsored by Holy Name Church.

In the group were Mrs. William Ellis, Mrs. Theodore Macginn, Mrs. MacChesnut, Mrs. Franklin C. Holmes, Mrs. Ludwig M. Liskiewicz, Mrs. Herbert W. Gost, Mrs. Warren J. Rutter and Mrs. Donald G. Klein. Also in the party were Mrs. C. Paul Taylor of Berkeley, a former neighbor, and Mrs. Frank A. Ross, 1288 Cedar Drive, Birmingham, who won a door prize.

THE SON BORN to Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Klein Nov. 22 was christened John Frederick in Holy Name Church Jan. 26. His godparents are Roy and Shirley Budd, Mrs. Klein's brother and sister. Also present at the christening were John's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Klein, Chula Vista Lane, Bloomfield Township, and his grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Budd, Detroit.

The Cadets, Derby Junior High School Girl Scout Troop, will be camping at Narrin Feb. 21, 22 and 23. Senior Scouts who will be camping with the Cadets and help plan programs, menus and recreation are Karen Plew, Martha MacCleary, Helen G. Givley and Kirklyn Hall. Mrs. John W. Jickling and Mrs. Erling Oyen are leaders of the Cadet troop, composed of 15 girls, who came to Derby from Torry, Adams, Harlan and Pembroke.

BECAUSE THEY believe that much teen trouble can be prevented if parents are alerted beforehand, the Birmingham Parent-Teacher Committee is sponsoring a series of meetings for all fifth and sixth grade parents in Birmingham.

H. W. McEachern, Branch Supervisor of Oakland Child Guidance Clinic, and students from Torry will conduct a panel discussion about teenagers at Derby Junior High School March 5 at 8 p.m.

Announcing plans for the meeting, Mrs. Jack T. Steelman, Parent-Teacher representative from Torry School, said that parents of children in Torry, Adams, Harlan and Pembroke will receive invitations to attend the meeting.
