for a few games, then convene at the church to discuss plans.

Members of St. Andrew Lutheran Church are getting together Saturday evening to organize a couples club. They will meet first at Strike 'N Spare Bowling Lanes

Mrs. Mayford Roark of Raven Road, chairman of volunteers for the children's psychiatric unit of Pontiac State Hospital, is working on plans to organize a bridge tournament in Kirkwood to raise money for the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children. She reports that there is a continuing need at the hospital for volunteers to tutor the children, help with arts and crafts, and with the parties held every Tuesday evening for the teen-agers. Cookies are always in demand for these parties; also, good second-hand clothing from size 8 up can always be used.

MARCIE KEBEL of McCall's Patterns will use doll-size mannequins to demonstrate fashion coordination for the Walnut Lake Women's Club Tuesday evening at the West Bloomfield Township Library.

Mrs. C. E. Morrow is chairman of the tea committee. She will be assisted by Bernadine Phillips and Elaine Spriguel. The meeting starts at 8 p.m.

AT A BOARD meeting held Feb. 17, Brass Three Association elected officers for the new year. President is Willard McPhie; vice president, Gerald Mats; secretary, Mrs. W. Hudson Ragdale; treasurer, Gordon Fowle; and social chairman, Mrs. James Martin.

MRS. WALTER Gorman of Darramoor Road gave a continental breakfast Feb. 12 for the committee of the Walnut Lake branch WNFGA working on plans for a mixed dessert bridge scheduled for April.

Committee members are Mrs. Henry Hall, president of the club, Mrs. Richard Bannister, Mrs. Floyd Vine, Mrs. Leo Miller, Mrs.

Paul Colbrooke, Mrs. John Evans and Mrs. William Gotshall.

At last Wednesday's meeting of the Birmingham Ski Club, Lynn Barber and his eight-year-old son, Rick, of Eastmore Road, were awarded trophies for coming in first in their respective classes in the club's inter-club competition held at Alpine Valley on Feb. 12.

TWELVE BRAES of Bloomfield couples, among them, the Barkers, Neale Schermerhorn, John Kodrich, George McIntyre, Walter Gorman, Barney Tylers and George Sims, are taking lessons in the Latin-American dances Friday evenings at Jack Barnes Studio.

Classes started off with the minnie. The cha cha was on the agenda last Friday.

MR. AND MRS. Stan Rapis of Eastmore Road, who are playing in St. Owen's bridge league, were hosts Friday evening to two tables of card players in the mixed league.

Mrs. George Shanahan, also of Eastmore Road, is Mrs. Rapis' partner in the afternoon league.

MR. AND MRS. A. J. Richter of Priory Lane returned on Feb. 14 from a week of skiing at Crystal Mountain with the John Tuscanyans of Derby Road and the Richard Huttenlockers of Clarkston.

The Richters were off again last Friday, this time with their three children, to spend the holiday week end in Grand Rapids visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Richter.

Mrs. Kenneth Hicks of Big Rapids and her two daughters and son spent the week end of Feb. 15-16 visiting their cousins, the John Kakes of Kingsmill Drive.

THE PIERSON clan has hit on a novel solution for family visits without long hours spent on highways. The Richard Piersons and son David of Darramoor Road drove to Battle Creek on Feb. 16 and at the Holiday Inn there, met his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pierse, who had driven from their home in Kankakee, Ill.

Result: a pleasant, relaxed week end visiting together, climaxed by dinner at Schuler's in Marshall.

SCOTT PARKER of Sutters Lane was seven years old last Friday and celebrated the day by bringing cupcakes, punch and candy to Meadow Lake School to share with his classmates in Mrs. Beemer's first grade room.

Festivities continued that night when Scott's friend, Mark Urban, was invited for dinner and to spend the night at the Parkers.

MR. AND MRS. Leo J. Elbert, parents of Mrs. Charles Rodell of Blackburn Drive, have arrived at their retirement home in Sun City, Ariz.

Lifelong Michigan residents, the Elberts had lived on Cedar Hill Drive for the last five years. Although they leave behind six little Rodell grandchildren, including eight-month-old Elizabeth, they have three granddaughters in Scottsdale, Ariz., children of their son, Lee, with a fourth grandchild expected momentarily.

A second son, Mike, also lives in Arizona, in nearby Phoenix.

IN ADDITION to the Dale Noffs of Quanton Road, the Richard Bergmanns of Darramoor Road have also been transferred east. Bergmann is with Link Belt Co. and his new business address will be Summit, N. J., 20 miles west of New York City.

Prior to their seven years residence in Birmingham, the Bergmanns spent three years in Johannesburg, South Africa, where the oldest of their four sons, Richard, was born.

New Kirkwood residents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kuschwa of
