

Quill and Scroll Honorary Inducts 12 Marian Students

By KATHLEEN DARGA
Special Writer

"The Role of the Catholic Woman in Today's World of Communications" was the theme of Robert Wassner's Feb. 26 address at the student body at the occasion of the first induction ceremony to the Quill and Scroll International Journalism Honor Society.

The 12 students inducted were: Claudia Coyer and Kathleen Doyle, co-editors of the Marianews; staff members Teresa Peterson, Mary Beth Beardon, Kathleen Sullivan, Mary Slowik and Carol Bois.

Kathleen Darga, editor of the literary magazine; Anne Marie Murphy, editor of the Marian Way yearbook, and staff members Virginia Cisse, Susan Consolmagno and Shirley Devine.

FOR INDUCTION into the Quill and Scroll, members must be in the upper third of their class in scholarship, must have done superior work on school publications and must be approved by faculty advisors, the school administration and the secretary-treasurer of Quill and Scroll.

Wassner, who administered the pledge in the presence of the students' parents, is a member of the journalism faculty of the University of Detroit. In the presentation of awards, he was assisted by Sister M. Judine and Sister M. Raphael, advisors for school publications.

The ceremony was conducted by underclassmen who will assume the duties of the publications staffs in future years. Mary Frances Gray, Marian Arts; Cheryl Kudla, Patricia Naughton, Julie Tata and Kathleen Whiting lit the candles of virtues stemming from truth. Senior Barbara Esslinger was mistress of ceremonies.

The winners of the All-School Dramatic Interpretation Festival have been announced. These girls represented Marian at the Genesis Speech Festival held this year at Austin High School, Detroit, in co-operation with high schools throughout the area.

In the field of Narrative Poetry, Mary Rose Critelli presented a monologue: "Elizabeth the Queen." Dina Greenway read several religious poems taken from "Hymns to the Church" and Nancy Perkowski chose "Oliver Twist" as the source for her reading of dramatic literature.

KATHLEEN DARGA read a scene from The Tempest in the category of Shakespeare reading, and Linda Gibson chose a speech by Susan B. Anthony in the oratorical division.

Mary Hymans was the representative in the category of serious prose, and Carol Corlan read from "My Life with Mother Superior" in the contest for humorous prose. Janet Sabo chose a selection from "Winnie the Pooh" in the field of children's literature.

A multiple reading, taken from the modern play, "A Man for All Seasons," based on the trial of Sir Thomas More was delivered by Colleen Calvert, Susan Desimp, Maureen McGowan and Kathleen McPhail.

Skiing has been a popular activity among Marian students this winter, with forty Seniors going under Mothers' Club Sponsorship to the Caberfae Ski Area on a weekend holiday.

THE SKI CLUB also participated in the 1964 Southeastern Michigan Interscholastic Skating Ski Meet. Entrants included Abbey Forester, Elaine Hall and Mary Anne Hartwell, with alternates Sue Henry, Ann Marie Stuecheli, Mary Liz Stuecheli and Diane Sybeld.

One of the many ideas inspired by the 57 school Student Council Workshop sponsored by Marian and Immaculata, Detroit, was a possible all-city Student Council.

Under the chairmanship of Leslie Mahler, the Feb. 22 workshop.

Record Number Of B'field Junior Pupils Join Club

By MARCIA MOYER
Special Writer

A record 287 students this year enjoyed membership in the ski club sponsored by the recreation department. There were 64 seventh graders, 82 eighth graders, and 91 ninth graders.

Eight trips were taken to Mt. Holly. The faculty sponsors include Mr. Dracshil, Mrs. Eshman, Mr. Hetherington, Miss Howarth, Mr. Lahti, Mrs. Smith and Miss Stacey.

Music students attended "An Evening of Opera" at the Detroit Cultural Center on March 5. The program featured "The Telephone" by Gian-Carlo Menotti and excerpts from "La Traviata," "La Boheme," and Bernstein's "Candide."

THE BOYS Glee Club and Madrigal Singers will perform for the Lion's Club on March 10th. The ninth grade girls all-star basketball team defeated Norup Junior High of Berkley by a score of 30-6.

Keynote Speaker

Oranbrook's English Department Head, Carl G. Womborger will be the keynote speaker at the annual winter meeting of the Detroit Metropolitan English Club, to be held on Saturday, February 29 at the Murphy Junior High School in Detroit. His topic "Twisting the Tiger's Tail," will concern itself with convenient delusions concerning the teaching of English in school and college.

Berkshire Junior Organizes School Spelling Contest

By MARGARET BROWNING
Special Writer

The all-school spelling bee will take place on March 11. The following seventh graders will go to the school spelling bee: Sarah Rapport (grade champion), Dave Lindsay, Sarah Caldwell, Marc Gregg, Kathy McDonald, Debbie Holloway, Kim Keller, Bob Jennings, Karen Middleton, Doug Tull, Marc Bergeron and Jackie Anderson.

These are the eighth graders who will go to the school spelling bee: Debbie Vroom (grade champion), Linda Ruehle, Ken Berry, Margaret Browning, Craig Sutherland, Lani Harnden, Wendy Thompson, Mark Dykstra, Jim Siddell and Jim MacDonald.

Water Ballet tryouts were held March second, third and fourth. Make-up tryouts will be held on March ninth. The girls were required to do the following stunts: tub, back and front somersault, back dolphin, ballet leg, surface dives and penny sub.

JOHN DUNLOP and John Kin-sella were judges during the first hour of the bees. Miss Sanborn and Mr. Blackwell judged during the second hour. Miss Nancy

March 5, 1964 THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC 38

Michel, Miss Donna Harris and Miss Carter were the English teachers who organized the contest.

Water Ballet tryouts were held March second, third and fourth. Make-up tryouts will be held on March ninth. The girls were required to do the following stunts: tub, back and front somersault, back dolphin, ballet leg, surface dives and penny sub.

Three generations of Craigies (Robert, Jr.; Robert, Sr.; and Leslie Ann) are customers of our Schoolcraft-Dale office. The men look to us for their company's business financing. All three have savings accounts. Only two have checking accounts. (Leslie Ann can't write.) Since Bob Craigie, Sr., first came in our door, we've served his family continuously for nearly 40 years. Someday, we hope to serve Leslie Ann's grandchildren, too.

DETROIT BANK & TRUST