Church Music Topic At Christ Church

Dr. David Di Chiera, professor of Music History and Composition at Oakland University, will speak on church music from the composer's point of view at the 12:45 p.m. meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook, March 10.

He will have as part of his program a group of student choristers who will perform parts of his Cantata.

Dr. Di Chiera recently performed his Piano Concerto as a guest soloist with the South Oakland Symphony Orchestra. He is currently producer-director of the Overture to Opera Series being presented throughout the Detroit area.

Recipient of a George Gershwin fellowship, he also was a Fulbright Scholar in Italy in Music History, and while there was commissioned by the United States Information Service to compose and perform nationally an original piano recital.

Pancake Supper Set at Community

The annual pancake supper will be held at Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village Friday, March 13, with continuous serving from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Sponsored by the TYPS (Senior High Young People) with BNU Christian as general chairman, this traditional meal with good fellowship is open to all who wish to participate.

Dr. Merrill Lenox will be guest preacher at Community Congregational Church of Lathrup Village at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services March 8. The Rev. Philip Gentile, minister of the church, cordially invites visitors and newcomers to come and hear Dr. Lenox.

As executive secretary for the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches for the past 20 years, Dr. Lenox has been instrumental in bringing the Detroit Council into the position of being one of the three largest councils in the country in terms of its far-reaching programs. Especially noteworthy are the noonday Lenten services for which Detroit has become nationally known.

Interested women in the community are invited to hear Dr. Di Chiera, and those wishing to attend the noon luncheon preceding this program should make reservations through the church office by noon March 10th.

Rabbi to Discuss Marriage, Divorce

Rabbi Morris Adler and Dr. Irving Sigel of the Merrill-Palmer School will discuss "Marriage and Divorce" on Tuesday evening, March 10th at 9:30 p.m. at Congregation Shaarey Zedek in Southfield.

This presentation is the fourth in a series of five entitled collectively "Judaism and the Concerns of Modern Man" sponsored by the Adult Institute of Congregation Shaarey Zedek under the chairmanship of Dr. Harry Balaban. The presentation entitled "Facing Personal and Social Crises" will be held on March 17 with Dr. Peter A. Martin as discussant. The community is invited to attend.

Guests at Franklin

Rev. and Mrs. James Evans were the missionary guests at the monthly fellowship supper at the Franklin Baptist Church Feb. 28. After the supper, Mr. Evans showed slides of Peru where he and his wife will be sent as missionaries with the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism.

1st Presbyterian Choir to Present Brahms' Concert

The 90-voice Chancel Choir and soloists of First Presbyterian Church will present "A German Requiem" by Johannes Brahms on Sunday evening, March 15 at 8 p.m. The choir will be assisted by Mildred G. Ritter, Associate Organist, an orchestra composed of members from the South Oakland, the University of Michigan and the Pontiac Symphony Orchestras. John Cataldo is the Concertmaster and L. Robert Slusser, Minister of Music, will conduct. The public is invited and a reception will follow. The Noon Lenten Services will continue at First Presbyterian Church on March 11 and 18 at 12:05 p.m. in the Sanctuary using as a theme, "People Whom Jesus Forgave."

On March 11, Dr. W. Glen Harris will preach on, "An Irresponsible Multitude" and the service will be sponsored by the Bible Study Groups, Prayer Groups, Senior Activity Group and Ushers.

On March 18, "Every Christian" will be Dr. Harris' sermon and the service will be sponsored by the Neighborhood Representatives. A luncheon is served after each service at 12:30 p.m. in the Social Hall and everyone is invited.

Birmingham Young People Attend National Seminar

How would you like to leave Birmingham on Saturday, March 7, drive to Washington, stay there four days, then go to New York to round out the week? And how would you like to be accompanied by six of tomorrow's leaders?

Rev. William W. Sutterlin, minister of Christian education at Birmingham's First Baptist Church, will have this experience with six young people from the church. The occasion is the annual Youth

Church is Consecrated

Harold H. Fisher, architect of the $250,000 first unit of the Beverly Hills Methodist Church (left) stands at the altar with Bishop Marshall R. Reed, residence Bishop of the Michigan area of Methodist Churches after the consecration ceremonies performed by Bishop Reed, Feb. 23. The new building was consecrated just three years following the organization of the mission church.

Guild Plans Book Review

The Valparaiso University Guild, Oakland County Chapter, will sponsor a Lenten Breakfast and Book Review on Wednesday, March 11, at 9:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

Following breakfast the group will hear two books reviewed by Mrs. Robert L. Kelly. The books are, "The Seven Words" by Clovis G. Chappell and excerpts from "God's Unfolding Purpose" by Suzanne de Dietrich.

MRS. ED SCHRECK, general chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. H. B. Mareks, Mrs. W. Earl Redfern, Mrs. Edward A. Schroeder, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Thomson, Mrs. Walter Wallace, and Mrs. Duane Wugaxer. Members of the Guild will help with the serving.

The Oakland County Chapter belongs to the National Guild whose purpose is being of service to Valparaiso University located in Valparaiso, Ind. The Lenten Breakfast is open to the public.

Methodist Camping Director to Speak at Big Beaver Church

The Reverend Frank Dennis will be the guest speaker at the Big Beaver Methodist Church on March 12 at 7:30 p.m. A Family Fellowship Supper will precede the Lenten Devotions. During the worship service sound movies on a Christian theme will be shown to the children present.

Mr. Dennis is the Conference Director of Camping for the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Church. He has been active in youth work during his present duties in 1961. Before coming to Michigan he served Pastors in Iowa and Delaware.

On Sunday, March 8, the Reverend Albert Hartog, Pastor of the Big Beaver Church, will continue his series of sermons on "Aids to Spiritual Health," with a message entitled, "Congregational Worship." The same sermon will be preached at both the 9:30 a.m. and the 11:00 a.m. services.

Services Scheduled

The Rev. John R. Monson, pastor of the St. Augustine Lutheran Church, Troy, announced that regular services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Sundays with Sunday School at 9:10 a.m.

The petty economies of the riot are just as amazing as the ally extravagances of the hoop.

Christian Citizenship Seminar sponsored by the American Baptist Convention, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. From many parts of the country, 125 Baptist young people and their adult leaders will assemble in Washington and New York to observe the federal government and the United Nations at work. Main topic of discussion will be the role of Christians in a world of crisis.

BIRMINGHAM YOUNG people accompanying Rev. Sutterlin are Donna Sparrow, 5551 Westwood Lane; Julie Peet, 6786 Spruce Drive; Mary Lee Marx, 1800 Haynes; Charles Lee, 2552 Pembroke; Chris Howell, 640 Lakeside; and Larry Morse, 2540 Bellingbrook. Donna and Julie attend Bloomfield Hills High School. Mary Lee, Charles, Chris, and Larry are students at Seaborn High School. All are members of First Baptist Church of Birmingham and active in the youth program.

Scheduled visits in Washington include the State Department, Secretary general's office, House of Representatives, embassies, the Capitol, and other points of interest. Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Senator Joseph Clark of Pennsylvania will brief the seminar group on civil rights. Congressman Robert Kastenmeier of Wisconsin will discuss problems of world peace.

A high point for the Birmingham leaders will be an informal reception at the Washington office of Michigan's Congressman William Broomfield.

IN NEW YORK the seminar group will tour the United Nations Building, attend committee sessions, talk with U. N. secretariat members about international problems, and eat in the delegates' dining room. In the evening the group will go sightseeing.

Each day of the week-long seminar is planned to allow ample time for small group discussions, fellowship, and devotions. Emphasis will be on responsibility for further study and action in home communities following the seminar.

Rev. Hunt Guest At 2nd Northminster Lenten Family Night

Speaker for the second Lenten family night dinner this Wednesday evening at Northminster Presbyterian Church, 3585 West Big Beaver Road, will be the Rev. Mr. Harold Hunt. He is presently on the staff of Presbyterian Neighborhood Services, a resource organization for churches in the inner city.

A graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, Mr. Hunt will discuss the problems and goals of inner city churches, and what Christians in the suburbs can do to express their concern.

Prior to the program, dinner will be served at 6:45 p.m. Young children will have a supervised program of a puppet show and movie. A nursery will be provided for children three years old and under.

Dr. Elmer Lecturer at Union Service

The Rev. Franklin D. Elmer, Jr., DD, will be the guest preacher at the Congregational Church of Birmingham Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Dr. Elmer will speak at the fourth and final Union Lenten Service. Other services in the annual series were held at First Methodist Church, St. James Episcopal and First Baptist.

DR. ELMER is pastor of the Woodside Church (Interdenominational) in Flint. He has been a minister in full standing since 1930 and in the United Church of Christ since 1956.

Born in Winsted, Conn., he was educated at Suffolk School, Brown University and the University of Chicago. He was awarded the Ph.D. from Kalamazoo College in 1954.

Dr. Elmer was one of 39 ministers and religious officials called to confer with atomic scientists on the moral and political implications of the atomic bomb in 1946.

Day of Recollection Announced by Guild

A Day of Recollection is announced by the Brownson Guild of Catholic teachers and administrators in the Detroit area. The opening conference will start at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, March 15, at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, 1250 Kensington Road, Bloomfield Hills. All school teachers in and about Detroit are invited to attend.

The Rev. Robert N. Hinks, S.J., assistant professor of sociology at the University of Detroit, will give the meditations for the day.
