

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

MRS. J. F. HAMILTON
MI 6-2532

Suzanne Murray was reported "doing fine" Thursday night after undergoing surgery at William Beaumont Hospital, Feb. 27. She was rushed to the hospital Wednesday night suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Suzanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Murray, 1609 Bowers, is a sophomore at Marian High School.

Nancy Ferchland was a passenger in an auto driven by Kirklyn Hall which was involved in an accident at Maple and Hunter, Birmingham, last week. She was taken to Beaumont where examinations revealed she was not seriously injured, according to reports received Friday morning. Nancy's father, H. W. Ferchland, 1528 Bowers, is recuperating at home from a heart attack suffered Dec. 19. He is looking forward to returning to work in about another week. In the meantime, he enjoys having his friends stop in for visits. "It keeps me in touch with the outside world," he says. "I haven't been out for 60 days."

MRS. JEANNE Vanderlaan and Robert E. Overmeyer were married Saturday, Feb. 22. They spoke their vows before Robert S. Scott, Justice of the Peace of Bloomfield Township. Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Kuhn, Grosse Pointe, were attendants. Jeanne's daughter, Cindy, 8, was ringbearer. Following the ceremony a reception for 40 people was held at 1600 Bowers, where Mr. and Mrs. Overmeyer will make their home. Mrs. Overmeyer is a high grade teacher at Pembroke School, and Mr. Overmeyer, formerly of Oak Park, is associated with Gen's Coiffure Studio, Bloomfield Hills.

A son, Anthony, was born at noon Tuesday, Feb. 25, to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Priscianaro, 1809 Haynes, at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. He weighed seven pounds nine ounces. The Priscianaros have four other boys and two girls.

ALL SIXTH GRADE students from Terry School went together by bus to pay their last respects to their classmate, Stacey Elaner, at the Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co. Friday, Feb. 28. Stacey, 12, of 1029 S. Adams, died Wednesday night, Feb. 26, of injuries received Feb. 24 when his car was struck by an auto as he and his friend crossed S. Hunter near Haynes. His friend, David Miser, 10, of Royal Oak, was killed instantly. Stacey was a member of Boy Scout Troop 1021. He was buried in his Boy Scout uniform.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Murray will be among the guests seated at the Commodore's table at the North Star Sail Club in St. Clair Civic Center Saturday night, March 7. The cocktail hour will be followed by dinner and dancing.

RED LIGHTS flashing on fire engines speeding up Bowers St. Monday night, Feb. 24, brought men, women and children running out to see where the fire was. Firemen, answering a call at the home of Mrs. Pawlowski, 1847 Bowers, quickly doused a smoldering sea bag. The sea bag had fallen against a lighted electric light bulb in an upstairs closet. No damage was done.

Mrs. Pawlowski said she discovered the fire before it got a good start because she had sent her son, Gregg, upstairs to put on his Cub Scout shirt and when he came back downstairs with the shirt on, it reeked of smoke.

Ohio State Alums Meet for Cards

Members of the Ohio State University Women's Club of Detroit sponsored a benefit dessert card party yesterday at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. Proceeds will go to the University scholarship houses.

Mrs. Lew Kreglow, of Birmingham, was general chairman of the event.

Art World Present At Buffet Supper

By MARTI CAHN

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton McChesney of East Lansing were honored guests at a buffet supper Sunday given by Mr. and Mrs. Albert de Salle in their home on Manor Road.

The party followed a preview of Mr. McChesney's recent paintings and drawings shown at the Little Gallery. Collectors, critics, artists and others distinguished in local art circles were included in the guest list. They were Willis Woods, director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, and Mrs. Woods; Robert Kinman, curator of Contemporary Art at the Detroit Institute of Arts, and Mrs. Kinman; Dr. Clarence Hilberry, president of Wayne State University, and Mrs. Hilberry; G. Alden Smith, Fine Arts Dept. of Wayne State University, and Mrs. Smith.

OTHERS INCLUDED D. B. Varner, Chancellor of Oakland University, and Mrs. Varner; John Galloway, Fine Arts Dept. of Oakland University, and Mrs. Galloway; Zoltan Sepeshy, president of Cranbrook Academy of Art, and Mrs. Sepeshy; Dr. Stuart Hodge, director of the Flint Institute of Art; William Woolfenden, director of the Archives of American Art, and Mrs. Driver, Art Critic of the Detroit Free Press.

Still others were Mrs. Harry L. Winston, Dr. and Mrs. Hilbert Delawater, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Michaels of Birmingham and Bloomfield; Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Sterne, Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Shaye and Mr. and Mrs. William Bostick of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. James Lofstrom of Grosse Pointe; Ed and Betty Wagoner Hissong of Franklin and Mrs. Primula Pandt of Bombay, India.

One flaw marred the happy occasion—this was Diana's first experience celebrating a birthday without big brother Bill, who is attending the University of Miami as a first year pre-med student.

However, during the course of the evening, the honoree was paid twice to answer long-distance telephone calls. The first was from Grandmother Tehoy of Chicago, the second was from Bill—both to wish their favorite girl "many happy returns of the day."

Richard J. Osborn enjoyed his birthday celebration at Shanty Creek Lodge with Mrs. Osborn and their sons, Rick and Mark. Birmingham friends present at the resort to join in the Saturday evening party (singing was an added dividend) were Robert Hubert and son, Mike, of Glenhurst Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Hutchinson with daughters Peggy and Patty, of Lake Park.

MRS. JANE L. Mitchell of Hamilton Road, Bloomfield Village, was the honored guest at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney E. Hall of Grosse Pointe on Wednesday evening.

The occasion was Mrs. Mitchell's birthday which was celebrated with cocktails and dinner given in one of the small dining rooms of the Recess Club. Festivities continued at the Fisher Theater where the group attended the play "Never Too Late."

Those present were John Treble of Grosse Pointe; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Maedel of Bloomfield Village and Mrs. William F. Saeckow of Birmingham.

Marygrove Alums Plan Dinner Dance

The Birmingham chapter of the Marygrove College alumnae association will hold a cocktail party on April 4, preceding their annual dinner dance, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dempsey, 2840 Hylane, Birmingham.

Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m., and the group will then move to the University Club where reserved tables will await them.

State Confab Draws Local DAR Members

Mrs. Walter A. Kleinert of Birmingham will be the state conference chairman at the 6th annual meeting of the Michigan society, Daughters of the American Revolution, slated for March 11-13 at the Pantlind Hotel in Grand Rapids.

More than 400 women, representing 57 chapters in Michigan, are expected to attend the three-day confab. Attending from Birmingham include Mrs. Graeme B. Supple, regent, Piety Hill chapter; Mrs. Niel C. Talmage, vice regent; Mrs. George W. Webster, librarian; Mrs. Robert E. Britner, state DAR magazine advertising chairman; and Mrs. Newell Allen, state conservation chairman.

THE HONORABLE Alvin Bentley of Owosso, will speak at the national defense Luncheon on the subject, "Areas of Concern." The opening night session will be addressed by Edward A. Meany, Jr., Republican candidate for U.S. senate, whose subject will be "My Heritage 'Tis of Thee!'"

Other speakers at the conference include the Hon. Judge Mary Coleman, Judge of Probate Court, Calhoun County; Milton Kelly and Mrs. Vivien Frizzell, both of Ferris State College.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE

'See How They Run' Comes on Like a Lion

By NITA HARD
MA 6-3224

Unlike the weather, March community activities in Franklin roar in with a "something for everyone" bill of fare.

This Friday brings another opening night for the Franklin Village Players, presenting the high-hearted comedy "See How They Run," at the Farmington Players Barn. Directing the fast-moving vehicle to inaugurate the Players' 11th season is Paul Berenson and assistant Mrs. Philip Price.

An extra performance has been scheduled for March 12 when the Walnut Lake Women's Club has arranged to fill every seat for the evening. Regular performances will also be this Saturday night, starting at 8:30 p.m. and March 18 and 14.

Mrs. Fay Houk is ticket chairman with Mrs. Harold Gieger, the Forest Palmers and the Nicholas Rosillos.

ON MARCH 9, at noon the Franklin Branch of the WNGFA will meet at the Franklin Community church to hear Mrs. Neil Warren discuss "Water Conservation" with a what-can-we-do-in-our-own-homes emphasis.

Mrs. W. L. Draper is chairman of hospitality with Mrs. C. J. Nepper, Mrs. L. J. Roberts, Mrs. N.

Thureson, Mrs. W. L. Dreyer, Mrs. A. H. Gerhardt and Mrs. John Herms as her committee.

A ROLICKING evening is planned for the Couples Club on "Black Friday,"—March 13. To dispel the traditional apprehension, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Berlinger are in charge of arrangements for a millionaires party at the Parker House Frontier Town on Grand River.

A late buffet supper will follow an evening of rockies spending of phony money at numerous games. Details and reservations are being taken care of by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Al Stokke, Mr. and Mrs. John Anger, the Roy Klages, the Jack Bickhardt and the Steve Martellos. March 10 is the reservation deadline.

BOUND TO BE in fine shape for all these lively events are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams of Willow-green. They have just returned from three weeks in Hawaii.

They headquartered in Honolulu and took in as many typical island treats as time allowed. Adjusting to the difference in time was the hardest part.

EDWARD LOPPNOW, JR. has attained another campus honor at Parsons College in Iowa.
