

Taking Box Office Mechanics in Stride

Mrs. Forest W. Shea (left) and Mrs. John Spomer, both of Birmingham, are manning their own private box office these days, busily selling tickets and allocating seats for a benefit performance of "Little Me" April 5 at the Fisher Theater. Proceeds from the event will be used to expand

Detroit Country Day School's extra-curricular sports and activities. Other members of the committee from this area include Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bull, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Misch, the John Forsens and the Elwood P. Engels.

Adams PTA To Hear Dr. Smith

March 9 is the date for the next Adams School PTA meeting to be held at the school at 8 p.m. A string ensemble from the instrumental music group will open the program.

The nominating committee will present next year's slate of officers, while a representative from the group supporting plans for the Oakland County Community College will also address the group.

Dr. John Blackhall Smith, superintendent of schools, will make his first address to the group at the meeting, the last of the year.

ADAMS' FINALISTS in The Detroit News Spelling Contest slated for March include, from grade five, Janet Joy, Polly Gannon, Lynn Mattson, Jackie Leyland, Tom Vining, Elizabeth Cole, Robert Fitzgerald, Mike Wisby and Debbie Bamble. Robin Buel is the fifth grade champion, while Carol Holtz leads the sixth grade class.

Sixth grade finalists include Mary Lamont, Joan Spaulding, Nancy Nowak, JoAnn Fisher, Tina Tracey, Alan Benemelis, Reid Perry, Scott Warner and Cindy Bagby.

Final plans are being completed for the second parent-teacher conferences to be held in April.

The Parent-Teacher Committee of the Birmingham PTA Council has invited fifth and sixth grade parents to a program tonight at Derby Junior High School.
