SCHOLASTIC HONORS

Ann E. Reiter, a Bucknell University senior from Birmingham, has been named to the Dean's List for academic achievement during the first semester of the current academic year. Miss Reiter, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Y. Reiter, 4212 Butternut Hill Drive, is studying for the bachelor of arts degree.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The cast of "Simon Big Ears", children's play presented by the Albion College Players, included Karen Slade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Slade, 2689 Kentmore, Birmingham.

GOING GREEK

Grace Louise Saefke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Saefke, 1238 Villa, Birmingham, has been elected to Pi Kappa Lambda, national music honor society. She is a graduating senior at the University of Michigan.

OFF TO UCLA

Sue Draper, formerly a junior at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, majoring in the fine arts, has transferred her studies to the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA). She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Draper, 111 Abbey Road, Birmingham.

GOING TO WORK

Since the beginning of the year, Carol Lynn King, a senior at Bennington College in Vermont, has been attending public hearings and writing summaries of briefs and testimonies as part of her duties with the Trade Information Committee in Washington, D.C., as part of her on-the-job experience. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. King, 967 Rivenoak, Birmingham.

SET TO SWIM

Pauline Schnackel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Schnackel, 2596 Covington Place, Birmingham, has been named junior director of the annual Dolphins Club Water Ballet Show at Christian College, Columbia, Mo., where she is enrolled as a first-year student.

Miss Schnackel, a member of the Dolphins, student synchronized swimming group at Christian, historic women's college, will have a major role in producing the all-student show which is held in the Spring at the college swimming pool.

IN 'WHO'S WHO'

News from Albion College campus reveals that East Rathbun, 1960 graduate of Seaholm High School, has been elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" for the 1963-64 edition. Students are nominated on the basis of character, leadership and scholarship by a committee composed of both students and faculty members.

Rathbun, an economics major who is currently chairing of the executive of program manager in the Economics Club and social chairman of Sigma Chi fraternity, is also a member of Beta Beta Beta honorary biological fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Rathbun of Banbury Road, Birmingham.

'OUTSTANDING CADET'

T. S. Givens, a freshman at Michigan State University, was awarded the B.O.T.C. "Outstanding Basic Cadet Award" at a recent ceremony in East Lansing. Givens is a member of the special court-guerrilla company which trains its members in mountain and jungle operations behind enemy lines. The cadet is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Givens of 3857 Lakeland Lane, Bloomfield Hills and is a graduate of Bloomfield Hills High School.

SECRETARY OF 'SPHINX'

New officers have been elected by student organizations at the College of Wooster. Among those elected to a girls' club office was Virginia Keim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence A. Keim, 1712 Winthrop Lane, Birmingham. Ginny, a sophomore at the college, was elected secretary of Sphinx social club for the coming year.

PLEDGE AT ALMA

YOU'RE JUST A SHORT DRIVE FROM THE BEST PRIME RIBS IN TOWN

Very thick. Very tender. Very juicy. And very much to your taste. The meat chef presides over the roast every evening at Monte's in the Executive Inn. He'll cut precisely the cut you want, from deliciously rare to deliciously done. The salad is dressed and tossed to order. Plan to bring the entire family soon.

All this is just $3.50, and only a short drive from anywhere in this area. Come to the Beef Buffet at Monte's in the Executive Inn.

Van Dyke at 12 1/2 Mile Road - Warren, Mich. Reservations are suggested. Call JE 6-1020 or SL 4-7070
