Beverly Twelve Group
Marks 5th Anniversary

By ELLI LAUBMAN
MI 7-7465

Forty couples, all members of Beverly Twelve, celebrated the fifth anniversary of the group at a gala dinner dance at Palombos last Saturday evening.

Since a special cocktail hour had been planned at the restaurant, most of the couples headed directly toward Detroit, however, some decided to drive with friends like the Harold Hardings and the John Leesys, who stopped by on Carl Elder Drive to pick up Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foss.

Guests of honor and recipients of engraved plaques were the organization's presidents, past and present, the first of whom was Edward F. Dolan, now a Beverly Hills co-founder, who founded Beverly Twelve five years ago. Leslie B. Poland, George W. Kohlfed, Donald J. Ullrich, and this year's president, John H. York, were the other recipients.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Harspel, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Matties, Dr. and Mrs. John Pearl, and Mr. and Mrs. John York were the committee members who arranged the affair.

THE BEVERLY HILLS Garden Club, which is a member of the WNFCA and the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, is especially proud of one of its members, Mrs. William S. Dehm. Mrs. Dehm entered the place-setting competition at the Builders Home and Flower Show at Cobo Hall, and did such a fine job that she was awarded a blue ribbon for her efforts by the Michigan Horticultural Society.

Her task was to convey the feeling of a Mediterranean Holiday, so after much thought, Mrs. Dehm combined a gold cloth, an inverted fruit basket filled with citrus fruits, walnut plates, pottery casseroles, tropical greenery, scented candles, and green glassware into a prize-winning buffet style table.

JACK AND SUSAN Putnam of Madison Road entered their second antique show last week end. This annual show, sponsored by the Soroptimist Club of Ferndale, is a popular one with antique fans, as the Putnams discovered.

The Putnams' display consisted of primitive furniture and accessories, framed prints and lamps with antique bases which Jack put together.

Members of the John W. Hunter chapter of Quilters held their February meeting at the Dearborn home of Mildred Hanna, national vice president of the group, who showed the Beverly Hills group her extensive antique shoe collection and her collection of famous autographs.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM A. Steele and daughters Paula, 2, and Jane, 5, drove to Michigan City, Ind., last week end to help Mrs. Steele's mother, Mrs. W. H. Puzley, celebrate her birthday.

Mrs. Steele, a member and past president of our local chapter of Quilters, is proud of her home town, Michigan City, which boasts the oldest inland lighthouse in the United States. The lighthouse is being restored with funds contributed by Quilters all over the country, including the John W. Hunter chapter of Beverly Hills.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT Sikes and daughter Donelle moved from their Buckingham Road residence last Friday, but being confirmed Beverly residents they did not move out of the village. The Sikes' new ranch home is on Dunblaine near Southfield Road.

The neighbors on Devonshire Road had a going away dinner for the Herbert Lampes last Saturday evening at the home of the William J. Hunters. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Daniel White and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Voogler. Mr. Lampe has been transferred to Youngstown, O.

MRS. JOHN CLEMENS of Auburn Drive is still named for her recent trip of two weeks to Coral Gables, Fla.

Driving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Zuefle, and sister-in-law Mrs. Mac Zuefle, all of Windsor, Mrs. Clemens visited Marineland and the campus of the University of Miami during her stay. Much of the visit was taken up with swimming, bridge, and enjoying the food and weather, all of which adds up to a very nice way to chase the winter doldrums.

Their first plane trip will bring Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Martin from Cape Cod to Beverly Hills where they will visit their daughter's family, the E. A. McCabe of Buckingham Road.

A MEETING of the West Beverly Hostess Club was held Tuesday at the Riverside Drive home of Mrs. James Meagher. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Frank Coyer and Mrs. Robert Rowan.

Mrs. Gerald Tarvia, chairman of the Shamrock luncheon and fashion show to be held next Thursday at the Birmingham Country Club, organized last-minute preparations for the event.

Devon to Be Scene Of Luncheon

The second annual benefit luncheon to be given by the Auxiliary of the Oakland County Branch, Michigan Children's Aid Society, will take place Friday at 12 p.m. at Devon Gables.

Among Birmingham women on the committee are Mrs. Richard Weir, vice president, and Mrs. John Nicolls.

Purposes of the auxiliary as it begins its second year is fund raising and recruitment of volunteers to do telephoning and to drive babies and children to doctors and other appointments connected with their care.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Health and Welfare
On League Agenda

Dorothy Swinburne, health and welfare consultant from the Association of Junior Leagues of America, will be in Birmingham for meetings today and Friday. Miss Swinburne arrived from New York Wednesday evening and was met at Willow Run by Mrs. Sidney Smith, Jr., president of the Birmingham Junior League and Mrs. Arthur C. Henrie, Jr., current chairman of the local League's health and welfare committee.

MISS SWINBURNE

Here at the invitation of the Birmingham group, Miss Swinburne will discuss plans and advise the committee on current ideas and projects. This morning the committee will meet in the home of Mrs. Frank T. Murray on Puritan Road, for a session to exchange general information. Miss Swinburne will then be driven to Detroit to have lunch with Owen Wemhoff, director of the Metropolitan Advisory Committee for the mentally retarded, and Stanley Wallace, president of the Oakland County Council for Retarded Children.

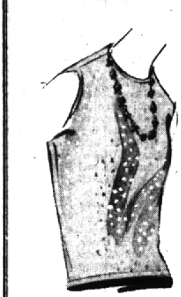

THIS EVENING Miss Swinburne will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Herbert Fisher in Bloomfield Hills. Following cocktails, dinner will be served to Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Henrie and the following League members: Mrs. Aben Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Richard Halsted, Mrs. Phoebe Matthews, Mrs. Nicholas Martin, Mrs. James M. Chandler, Mrs. John R. McNaughton, Jr., Mrs. Norman P. Goebel, Mrs. William
