Ninth graders and their parents are invited to a get-acquainted meeting at Seaholm High School on the evening of March 19. Special invitations have been sent by the Derby Jr. High PTA. A conducted tour of the facilities will be made and discussed with the visitors by the teaching staff.

The Dramatics Club, headed by Mrs. Evelyn Samenen and Miss Marguerite McKay, has been very active this year. Presently the students are rehearsing original skits, which they plan to present to their parents. The lines of the skits are inverted "on foot". This extemperaneous rehearsal gives the student a "close-up" to plot and the mechanics of a play.

* * *

THE DRAMATICS Club is also working on one-act plays, which they hope to present in an evening performance in April. Earlier in the year the students dabbled with pantomime and puppetry.

Officers of the Dramatic Club include: George Riordan, president; Lynda Briebois, vice president; Wendy Giffofd, Secretary; and Bob Sink, treasurer. The Club meets every other Tuesday.

James Melton, the late tenor, not only had a large collection of antiques cars, but also a considerable collection of Victorian clothes, which he sold to Winthrop Rockefeller shortly before his death.

In Michigan... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skiing, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Michigan...beer goes with fun, with relaxation
