

There's Wine on Agenda As Women Plan Luncheon

The annual election meeting of the Detroit chapter, Brandois University National Women's Committee, will be held Wednesday, March 18, at Temple Emanuel on W. Ten Mile Road.

Preceding the business meeting, a luncheonette will be held at noon, which will be complimentary to all paid-up members. Dues may be paid at the door. An unusual program will be presented by Mrs. Rita Leinwand of Birmingham, Cordon Bleu Graduate, who will direct a "Tasting of Spring Wines and Demonstration of Haute Cuisine."

MRS. LEINWAND, a native of South Orange, N. J., has enjoyed a distinguished career as a gourmet and connoisseur. She is presently director and teacher of the "Connoisseur's Kitchen" of the Birmingham Continuing Education Program.

She graduated from Barnard College with a degree in bacteriology, and spent several years doing cardiac research with the Beth Israel Hospital in New York. She seasoned her career with a romance with the art of Haute Cuisine, and she possesses coveted diplomas from the Cordon Bleu and L'Ecole des Trois Gourmandes in France. She has studied with renowned gourmets and cookbook authors James Beard, Paula Beck and Rebecca Caruso. She has also worked with disciples of Escoffier and many other internationally famous connoisseurs of food and wine.

June Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braden Jr. of Pontiac announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Diane, to John Williams Howell, son of Mrs. Carl Westensky, and the late John H. Howell of Big Beaver Road, Birmingham. Both the young people are seniors at Michigan State University where Mr. Howell is affiliated with Psi Upsilon fraternity. A June 20th wedding is planned.

Mrs. Leinwand recently moved to Birmingham with her husband, Sylvan, and children, Mark, 10, and Shari, 13.

Gourmet delights prepared by Mrs. Leinwand will be given away as awards.

Dad, Daughter Forego Flower Show

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

"What in the world is she going to do with her husband and children?" we wondered when we heard that the Pine Lake Estates branch of the Women's National Farm & Garden Association would be staging a flower show in seven rooms (including three bedrooms and the kitchen) of the William Blight home on MacNichol Trail all day today.

From Mrs. Blight we learned that their only child, baby daughter Lori Anne, had been whisked away yesterday morning by Grandmother Harold Cook of Southfield to spend several days with Mrs. Cook.

About her husband, Mrs. Blight said:

"I don't know what he's going to do but he says he won't be here."

THE CLUB'S first annual flower show (this year for members only) goes off with a bang this morning at 9:30 when women will be streaming to the Blight home until noon with their arrangements and table settings. As of last week, there were 35 entries plus another 17 in the junior division for children of members.

The various categories include doorway greeting arrangements, displays of flowers and candles in the dining room and of fresh fruits and vegetables in the kitchen.

The living room will be the setting for the theme, "A Treasure to Behold," where heirlooms and prized pieces will be arranged with plants.

AN OPEN breakfront in the family room will house miniature arrangements while on the hearth will be the potted plant entries.

Also in the family room will be children's offerings with emphasis on conservation.

In the bedrooms upstairs, card tables will hold settings using the following theme: "A Child Entertains," "Supper for Two" and "For Men Only."

From 2 to 5 this afternoon, judges will examine the entries and award ribbons. Members will return at 8 p.m. to learn results, study criticisms and enjoy a social hour.

TICKETS ARE still available and may be obtained at the door or from Mrs. E. Oakwood, 6805 Dartmoor, for the Walnut Lake Women's Club benefit theatre party tonight at the Farmington Barn.

"See How They Run," a comedy, is being put on by the Franklin Village Players.

OVER PIZZAS and hamburgers at a get-together on Feb. 29, 24 couples from St. Andrew Lutheran Church made plans for a couples club to meet monthly for fun and sociability.

The George Bywaters, Joseph Flubacher, Clarence Myrolds and Robert Donley were among those attending from this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butta and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bertachy were named as the committee to plan the next meeting on April 4.

THIS IS Girl Scout Week, so orchids to all the wonderful women who give of their time and energy to lead Girl Scout and Brownie troops.

Leaders and assistant leaders of the three troops which meet at Walnut Lakes School are Mrs. Herbert Robb and Mrs. Andrew Butta of Brownie Troop 700; Mrs. Donald Freed and Mrs. James Connell of Troop 612; and Mrs. Robert Westcott and Mrs. Gale Humes of Troop 99.

At Pine Lake School, they are Mrs. E. G. Sheehy and Mrs. James Dunne of Troop 05; Mrs. Donald Fedrigan and Mrs. William Phelps of Brownie Troop 630; and Mrs. Henry Haberkorn and Mrs. William Robbins of Troop 456.

MRS. HABERKORN is also troop consultant for two schools as well as Meadow Lake School.

Mrs. David Bradbury of Harbor Vista was leader of Troop 466 until the birth of twins, a boy and girl, on March 2. At their meeting on Feb. 24, the 30 girls in the troop surprised her with a baby shower.

Mrs. Richard Bannister of Darmanor Road is troop organizer for the area and also leader of Brownie Scout Troop 922 which meets at Meadow Lake School.

Her assistant is Mrs. Donald Urban of Sutters Lane.
