

She Was Born Feb. 29: First Birthday—1968

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

A Leap Year baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brandon of Pine Hill Drive on Feb. 29. They have named her Jo Ann Mary.

Jealous to look over the new baby are Susy, 11; Carol, 7; and Steve, 5.
Jo Ann Mary will be christened by Bishop Richard S. Emrich on the evening of March 19 when he officiates at the confirmation of children and adults at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church on North Adams Road.

THE DANIEL TATES of Helston Court have a pocket full of memories after their recent trip to the Caribbean. They boarded the liner Santa Rosa in New York for a leisurely two-week cruise. Their ports of call included St. Thomas, San Juan, Caracas, Kingston, Aruba and Nassau, where they took slides of the tropical landscapes, the people and the many historical sites.

The Robert Rareys of Hickory Heights Drive joined area friends on Sunday and departed for a week of skiing in the White Face Mountains of Vermont. The group plans to make their headquarters at the rustic lodge on Lake Placid. They include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farnham of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Durgin of Royal Oak and Mr. and Mrs. James Cyper of Grosse Ile.

DR. AND MRS. E. P. Hawthorne and children, Marie and Gene, of Blisbrooke Drive flew to Deerfield Beach, Fla. recently for a three-week stay in the sun. They will be visiting Mrs. Hawthorne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hendrickson.
Before Dr. Hawthorne returns home ahead of his family they are planned to meet friends in Nassau. The friends are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Deskin, owners of Shanty Creek ski area in northern Michigan.

THE FRANK PEHRS of Whittier Drive bid the four little Pehrs goodbye recently and traveled to Chicago for a leisurely four days of touring the windy city. They attended "How To Succeed in Business," "Tom Jones," and visited museums and art galleries. Their last evening was spent with the James Chenoy, former Birmingham residents.

Fall Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Glaser of Willow Lane, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Catherine, to Patrick Lawrence Jeakle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Anthony Jeakle of Courville Ave., Detroit. The bride-elect attended University of Detroit, where her fiancé is attending the evening division of the College of Commerce and Finance. Miss Glaser is employed at the International Division of Vickers Inc., Troy, and Mr. Jeakle at Chevrolet Engineering Center, General Motors Technical Center.
An Oct. 17 wedding is planned at Holy Name Church, Birmingham.

My Dear— Didn't You Know?

My goodness, They don't have the usual run of the mill type things you find in all the other stores.
Why everything is So Much More Distinctive. The Curiosity Shoppe has only the Finest Furniture and such a wonderful decorating service... wait 'til you walk in their door—you'll see what I meant. They like you to browse—and it's such fun!

MR. AND MRS. THOM

Trip to Bermuda Follows Reception

Susan Jane Peters, daughter of Robert G. Peters of Birmingham and the late Mrs. Peters, walked up the aisle of Christ Church Cranbrook Saturday afternoon to become the bride of William Henry Thom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thom of Foxcroft, Bloomfield Township.
The couple repeated their vows before the Rev. John Albrecht, after which a reception was given at the Village Woman's Club.

Judith Lawrence was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Nancy Jean Jeffrey and Mrs. Carl Penick, cousins of the bride, and Deanne Degener. They all wore empire gowns of floor-length aqua crepe and matching pill boxes and they, too, carried bouquets of gardenias.
Robert Bruce Thom was best man for his brother, and seating the guests were George Watkins, home from Parsons College, Ia., for the occasion; Jeffrey Michael Peters, brother of the bride, and Thom Marshall of Port Huron, cousin of the bridegroom. Michael Jeffrey Penick, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.
When the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Bermuda, the bride wore for traveling a beige-brown suit of raw silk with matching accessories. They will make their home in Royal Oak.
