Signing Up for Summer Fun

Can summer be far away when young Birminghamites sign up for the YMCA Camp Mah-Go-Tah-See at Hale, Mich.? Mike Dawson, Tom Dawson, Mrs. Maybly Cripps, wife of the camp director; Mrs. Grace Dawson and Pat Dawson (from left) watch as Mr. Dawson signs the boys up for two-week periods of fun and healthful living. The Dawsons reside at 880 Yarmouth in Bloomfield Village. This same scene was repeated many times at the recent reunion of boys and their families from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area. The reunion brought back memories of swimming in Lake Huron, overnight camps, sailing, fishing, riflery, photography, archery activity in the nature center and the new Jeffers Outpost erected on the 800-acre camp last year in memory of the late Dr. Fred Jeffers, who was a former camper, counselor and a past president of the camp board. Members of the board of directors of Camp Mah-Go-Tah-See invited their wives to join them for a dinner meeting recently at Kingsley Inn. Birmingham-Bloomfield residents in attendance included Mr. and Mrs. William E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Beier, the Carl Hollister, the Don Mallores, the Royal Paulletts, Mr. and Mrs. Don Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dawson and the Robert L. Jessups.

and on Monday, March 2, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Helmrich of Lahser Road celebrated theirs.

Beverly residents for 10 years, the couple was honored at a dinner party at the Bohford Inn given by their children George B. Helmrich, Jr., also of Lahser Road, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Helmrich of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan B. Helmrich of Huntington Woods, and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Helmrich of Kendallwood, Farmington.

Also among the guests were four grandchildren, Ruthann, Kathy, Tommy, and Johnny Helmrich.

An inscribed golden plate was presented to the senior Helmriches as a treasured memento of the occasion.

SPRING FASHIONS by Davidson's were featured in today's Shamrock fashion show at the Birmingham County Club.

Sponsored by the West Beverly Hostess Club, the clothing was modeled by club members Mrs. William Burke, Mrs. Bruce Campbell, Mrs. Harold Duris, Mrs. William Norn, Mrs. Richard Sprung, Mrs. Charles Greiner, Mrs. Edgar Eckel, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Paul Garipety, Mrs. Harold Vogler, Mrs. C. D. Brown, Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft, Mrs. Thomas Gordon and Mrs. Robert Lakatos.

The luncheon centerpiece designed by Mrs. Albert Lane featured shamrocks and green top hats. Club president Mrs. Gerald Tavis presided at the main table.

Proceeds from the affair will go to the West Beverly Sewing Group which sews for the Needlework Guild of America.

The next social event of the Hostess Club will be a dinner dance given with the West Beverly Association on May 16 at Devon Gables.

WHEN DR. AND MRS. Perry E. Brunk of Kenoway Court drove their daughter Ruth back to Pascham Academy in Vermont a couple of weeks ago, they decided to visit Montreal as well. The Brunks also spent some time in the Laurentian Mountains, and visited friends on Long Island before returning home by way of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The March meeting of the Beverly Hills Garden Club was held last week at the Locherbie Road home of M. DeLoach. Members learned much about many varieties of lilies from speaker Mrs. Leo Hough who illustrated her talk with colorful slides. Hostesses were Mrs. William Wyrkoff, Mrs. Ray Becker, and Mrs. William Schwierman.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Manza of Beaconsfield Road who became parents of their eighth child on Monday, Feb. 24. Weighing 8 pounds, 10 ounces, young John David is the Manzans' seventh son.

Summer can't be too far away, in spite of last Sunday's unwelcome snowfall, because the pool opening date of the Beverly Hills Athletic Association was set for June 13 when the board met last week at the John Clemens home on Auburn Drive.

FLYING SEPARATELY for safety's sake, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shurtliff took a business and pleasure trip to New York City on a recent week end.

While there, they saw "The Girl Who Came to Supper," enjoyed an off-Broadway English satire, "The Establishment," had a filet dinner at The Towers on the Bowery, and visited friends. The Shurtliffs also took a side trip to Darien, Conn., to visit former Lathrup residents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jackson who moved there last August.

POLAROID PHOTOS of themselves were among the "favors" guests brought home after attending Jonathan Rye's eighth birthday party last Saturday afternoon.

Friends who helped Jon celebrate were Gary Leppanen, Bill Farmer, Tony Nichols, Jeff and Brian Mantex, "Chickie" Kobelan, and Jim Blauman. Bobby Angell was invited also, however, due to illness was not able to attend. Jonathan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Rye of Lauderdale Ave.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, weddings and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

2 Pythians Given Past Chief's Pins

Birmingham Temple No. 94 of Pythian Sisters presented a past chief's pins to Mrs. Harry Snure and Mrs. John Schock at their regular meeting last week in the Birmingham Community House.

On March 18, a chicken dinner in the men's lounge of Birmingham Community House will precede the regular meeting. Most excellent chief Elizabeth (Mrs. Ross) Adams will introduce Emogene Beach of Ypsilanti, grand chief of Michigan who is making her official visit at that time. Initiation of new members will be held with the degree staff from Olympia Temple of Detroit assisting with the work.

SISTERS FROM temples in Lapeer, Port Huron, Pontiac, Detroit and Ypsilanti will be guests attending. District Deputy of District 8 and Past Chief, Mrs. Joseph B. Davidson is committee chairman for arrangements.

Delta Kappa Gamma Meets Sat.

The Lambda chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary society for women educators, will meet March 14 at 10 a.m. at the Royal Oak Library. Following the business meeting the committee on research will present a symposium on "economic and political changes in America." Hostesses include Agnes Billings of South-
