Joanne Rae Longdyke, Harold Cox Speak Vows

Birmingham's First Methodist Church was the setting for the nuptial ceremonies uniting Joanne Rae Longdyke and Harold Alan Cox on Feb. 15 during candlelight rites.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Longdyke, 3847 S. Millerway, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Cox, 4871 N. Harzale, Bloomfield Hills.

For her wedding, the new Mrs. Cox wore a full-skirted silk peau de soie gown appliqued in a lace rose pattern and embroidered with seed pearls. The gown was fashioned with a cathedral train, scooped neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her French illusion veil was secured by a lace petal cap framed in seed pearls.

THE BRIDE carried white rose buds, carnations and a white orchid bouquet. Unknown to the bride, the wedding ring of her maternal grandmother was tied to her bouquet for luck and happiness.

Holly Freda of Blackthorne Court, Birmingham, was chosen as maid of honor. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Thomas Robinson, sister of the bride from Union Lake; Doreen Longdyke, sister of the bride; and Mary Louise Cox, sister of the groom. Martha Lynn Cox, another sister of the groom, scattered rose petals down the aisle.
