Girls Celebrate Scout Birthday With a Party

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-4656

Today is the Girl Scout birthday and because of its number of the troops in the area from Brownie level on up are doing something in the way of celebrating.

Brownie Troop 266, which meets at Meadowlake School every Tuesday, celebrated by having a birthday party at their meeting. Leader of the troop is Mrs. James Klasmeyer. Coladeer is Mrs. James Costello.

Brownie Troop 487, under the leadership of Mrs. Eugene Brown, is at the present time engaged in making Easter favors for the children in the Pontiac State Hospital.

This troop meets every Thursday after school hours at the Booth school. Mrs. Brown has moved here from New Jersey and the coladeer, Mrs. John Fisher, is from England so the girls of this troop are getting first hand in-tory and geography notes on other localities.

JUNIOR TROOP 938 is holding a Court of Awards at the home of their leader Mrs. Tyler Perkins of S. Clumbury. The girls have been working diligently for their cooking badges and held a progressive dinner party on Feb. 27.

Homes opened up to them for this party were the Frederick LeLachurs, John Holmes, George Reasor's, Calvin Rowley, H. Wagners and Russell Duncans. Mrs. Leo Ledchoff is coladeer of the troop.

Mrs. Robert Carrier, leader of Troop 885 has assistance from her coladeers Mrs. Thomas McVetty and Mrs. Charles Swanson when they meet on Monday after school hours at the Booth school. The girls of the troop have just completed a Thinking Day program. Their next planned affair is a campout to be held in May.

THE MOTHERS of the girls of Brownie Troop 928 have been invited to give a special meeting which will be held at Meadowlake School on March 21 after school hours.

Devising slightly, the girls will perform in a skit using puppets to illustrate the Brownie Troop motto. Mrs. Richard Bannister, Her coladeer is Mrs. Donald Urban.

At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served by the troop committee chairman, Mrs. Edwin Karpick and her assistants Mrs. John Brinks and Mrs. George Sims.

A JUNIOR TROOP 450, under the leadership of Mrs. John Hitchcock, has done a number of interesting things within the past few weeks. On Feb. 15, the troop spent the entire day at the Ivory Farms.

It seems the girls who recently acquired their songstress badge could have given the ever-popular Brownie some stiff competition. Artistic-wise, the troop has produced book markers with a gold leaf pattern.

At the present time several of the members of the troop are working toward their Sign of the Arrow while the following girls who have reached the attainment of Sign of the Star, Christy Barwick, Lisa Swanson, Lynn Eubank, Cheryl Cruse and Kathy Ware. Probably their most rewarding project will be the adoption of a grandmother for a year.

The woman to be selected will be a resident at home. The girls have also collected great quantities of books for children's homes. Coladeer of the troop is Mrs. Neal Schermerhorn.

Residents who live in the areas of the Conant, Booth or Meadowlake school who may wish information on meeting place of troops for their girls may contact Mrs. David Porter, 6200 Thurber, who is a troop organizer; Mrs. Donald Burch, 6071 Westwood court, a troop consultant or Mrs. George Thomas, 6866 Sandelewood, wood, a neighborhood chairman.

THE BLOOMFIELD Farms National Farm and Garden Club will be having their one-year Wax and Means project on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. White Anderson, 7843 Windemere Lane.

It will be a salad buffet luncheon with card-playing afterward. Mrs. Gerald Dickson is chairman of the party while Mrs. Chester Lory is in charge of an "added attraction," the modeling and displaying of spring hats. It is requested that tickets to the party be procured in advance from Mrs. George Wirth, 4955 S. Clumbury.

Besides the table prizes, several of the hats shown will be given as door prizes. Proceeds from the party are to be used for the branch's philanthropic endeavors. Mrs. Tyler Perkins is president.

THE SECOND annual teen bowling party sponsored by the Westchester Women's Club is being held on Saturday, March 21, at the Birmingham Bowl. Starting time is 7:30 p.m.

This affair is open to all the young people in the Westchester Village area who are 12 years and over. It was a real fun time last year and promises to be a repeat this year.

The "tab" for the party will include three games of bowling, shoes, hamburger and coke, prizes and trophies for the lucky ones. Reservations on the reservation is Wednesday. They are being taken by Mrs. Harry Bothe, 3699 W. Bradford Drive, and Mrs. James Graham, 742 Westbourne Drive.

"HELLO" new neighbor coffee was held on Feb. 27 at the home of Mrs. Frank L. Smith of Middlebury Lane to welcome Mrs. Julie Maszola who has moved to this area from Argentina.

The ladies present were most helpful in acquainting Mrs. Maszola with the various activities and projects which are available to the residents of the Westchester Village area.

On hand to welcome Mrs. Maszola were Mrs. Frank Jewell, Mrs. Robert N. Hollyer, Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Verna Opieka. Others were Mrs. James Courtney, Mrs. Winston Terzic and Mrs. Frank Fazio.

MR. AND MRS. Tyler Perkins of S. Clumbury returned home on March 21 after spending two weeks vacationing south of the border. After a flight to New Orleans, they went on down to Mexico City and Acapulco.

Highlights of their trip included dining with an assistant film director who is on location for a Lana Turner picture and climbing a pyramid to meet Cliff Robertson, an actor. An interesting item made known is the fact that until three years ago Acapulco was the second largest seaport in the world.

IF YOU ARE not already aware of it, there is the possibility of a swim club and nine-hole golf course in the vicinity of Franklin and Maple Roads. Approval of the township and residents in the immediate area has been obtained.

It's actual "being" will be based on signed membership. Additional information may be obtained from Mr. Earl Gifford, 4698 Charest, Pontiac, or Mr. Herb Askew, 6854 Cederbrook, Birmingham.

Elegance Sets Theme Of Croatian Preview

The royal purple carpet in the lobby and the lacy aluminum facade of the Reynolds Aluminum Building, near Northland Center, will provide a setting of elegance tonight for a charming central European custom which will be enjoyed by several area couples.

This is the "Wine Festival," which will fete the committee of 110 couples working to assure success for a benefit concert on April 1, planned under auspices of the Croatian Board of Trade. Zinka Milanov, Metropolitan Opera Diva, and her brother, Bosidar Kunc, contemporary Croatian composer and pianist, will be presented in concert with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at the Ford Auditorium with Sixten Ehrlich conducting.

Shoes need more shining in damp weather, not alone for appearance sake but because the leather needs the lubrication of polish. Blood stains on shirt collars, from shaving, will come out easily if ammonia is applied to spots before washing.

FOLLOWING THE reception, guests will choose from a variety of interests which will set the pace for the evening. They will enjoy a short film on California
