

Present Traub Awards To Bloomfield Students

By KAREN TRIMMER
Special Writer

Winners of the 1964 Traub Scholarship were announced at Bloomfield High School on March 10. They are Vance Hanna and Karen Clark (alternate) in art, and Pat Parrott and Carol Fullerton (alternate) in music.

This award was established eight years ago by Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor Traub in memory of her deceased husband Mr. Robert C. Traub and is presented annually to two students plus two alternates who have shown exceptional aptitude and interest in either art or music.

A trust fund has been laid aside to perpetuate and sustain this award which sends the winners to Europe for six weeks following graduation from high school.

NATIONAL MERIT Scholarship Qualifying Tests were given to RHHS students on Saturday. These tests search for students with high ability who may not be able to afford a college education.

Areas tested were English, mathematics, word usage, social studies and natural science reading. From these tests approximately 14,000 students from across the country will be named as semi-finalists and become eligible for scholarships and other financial aid. Schedules for next year are now being prepared by juniors and sophomores. New classes which will be offered for the first time next year are business law, business math, general record keeping, geography and world affairs, humanities (expanded to a full year course), English composition and cooperative training program in office occupations. Students may discuss any planning problems with counselors Mrs. White, Mr. Sutherland, or Mr. Halvas.

CLASS RINGS were ordered on March 13 by sophomores from a representative of the H. R. Terry Company. Delivery will be made about June 1.

Students may choose between these various styles: sterling silver, satin 10-karat gold, multi-gold inlay, white pearl or black onyx.

'Li'l Abner' Makes Debut At Cranbrook

By DOUGLAS LIEBERMAN
Special Writer

The operetta has been the big thing this week at Cranbrook School. Last-minute preparations have been finished and everything is in readiness for the performances tomorrow and Saturday nights, March 20 and 21.

The show this year will be "Li'l Abner," a Broadway smash in 1956. The story is a zany tale of the adventures of the famous comic strip characters, with dancing and a full orchestra, directed by Walter Read, to perform the music.

THE STARS will be Kingswood's Judy Wells as Daisy Mae and Cranbrook's Arch Copeland as Abner, with Gordie Thayer as Marryn' Sam. Also featured will be Anne Fuchs as Manny and Sandy Sanden as Pappy, Doug Green as bullying Earthquake McGoon and John Kopychek as Senator Jack S. Phogbound.

Voluptuous Appassionata von Climax will be played by Pat Fagan and the tycoon General Bullmoose will be Doug Lieberman, with Bob Chambers as head scientist Dr. Rasmusen T. Pinsidele. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Sinclair, from Kingswood, did the direction and choreography.

THE SHOW will be held in the Cranbrook Auditorium in the small gym at 8:15 p.m. Tickets will be sold at the door and everyone is welcome. It promises to be at least as big a success as last year's "Bye Bye Birdie" and should be an evening of fun and entertainment for everyone.

Marian's Sister Judine Selected To Nat'l Council

Sister M. Judine, Senior English Dept. Head at Marian High, has been appointed to a position with the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE), a professional organization of about 80,000 members and subscribers at all levels.

Sister Judine will serve as a member of the Committee on Public and Professional Relations. The function of this committee is to interpret the Council, its program and its affiliates to the education profession and to the American public.

This appointment is one of many being made by NCTE in connection with vigorous expansion of the organization in new directions, according to Dr. James R. Squire, Council Executive Secretary.

The goal of the Council is to increase the effectiveness of the teaching of English language and its literature in the nation's schools and colleges.

Crown New Derby Spelling Bee Champ

By TERRY GERMANSON
Special Writer

From the all school spelling bee, held on March 10, has emerged Derby's new school champion, Jean Tam, and first runner-up, Leigh Marriner. Jean will represent Derby in the district competition. She will receive a bronze medal, Papermate pen and a certificate of championship. "Anachronism" was the winning word.

The "Bunny Sock Hop", sponsored by the Student Council, is scheduled for March 20. The 7th grade dance will be held in the afternoon. Entertainment will be provided by The Marauders.

EASTER VACATION begins on March 27. Students will return to school on April 6. Derby's six student teachers left on March 12 to return to their respective universities. The student teachers in the Birmingham School System are primarily from Michigan State University.

However, Eastern Michigan University, the University of Detroit and Wayne State University are also represented. Each of the three groups of college students stays a term in the school system.

Before leaving the university, the student teacher fills out a form indicating his preference as to locality, his interests and the courses he has completed. From this the principal selects a teacher for the college student-teacher. Teacher participation in the program is purely voluntary.

DERBY IS expecting three new student teachers after Easter. They include: Mr. Joseph McKeen with Mr. Thomas Nichols, Miss Martha Steiner with Mr. Edward Spencer and Miss Sandra Sweet with Miss Frances Jeanne. They will complete the school year with the students.
