Spring Blows Into Club For Party

A breath of spring blew into Birmingham Country Club Wednesday as Chudik's of Birmingham arrived with their newest and most exciting fashions. Clubhouse decorations in a spring motif pleased members and guests to long for the scent of apple blossoms and tulips.

Modeling was done by club members: Mrs. Dale F. Christman, Mrs. S. Eling DuBois, Mrs. Tobin C. Rote, Mrs. William E. Shaw, Mrs. Glen H. Whitney and Mrs. David K. Wirth. Chosen to show off Chudik's bridal collection were Marty Evans, Sue Zimmerman and Maggie Ploch, daughters of members. Betty and Joyce Dietrich were flower girls. Committee for the luncheon included: Mrs. George B. Jaakel (chairman), Mrs. Robert E. Hoover and Mrs. Paul A. Thorlakson.

Neighborhood Notes

From Peggy

MRS. J. F. HAMILTON MI 6-2532

Mrs. Kenneth R. Weaver, Lewis, 4, and Jeff, 2, were in Decatur, Ind. for two weeks visiting Mrs. Weaver's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kimble. Mr. Weaver drove to Decatur and brought them home March 8.

In Chicago last weekend, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Tabb, 1566 Bowers, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell Perry. Saturday night they went to the Stockyard Inn for dinner. It was a birthday celebration for Mr. Tabb and Mr. Perry, whose birthdays both fall on March 14.

In the party also were Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Miller. The Millers and the Perrys were originally from Birmingham and are now neighbors on Chicago's near north side. Mr. Perry is assistant to the Dean of the School of Business Administration at the Univ. of Chicago.

Business Women Hear Irish Tenor

The Birmingham Business and Professional Women's Club monthly meeting Tuesday night at Devon Gables featured a St. Patrick's Day theme.

Irish Tenor Chris Rafter, manager of Western Golf Club, provided the entertainment for the evening. Associated with the Michigan Opera Society and the Oakland Choral Society, Mr. Rafter recently returned from a trip to Ireland.

Mrs. Olga Taylor, state business and professional women's club president, and Mrs. Kathrine Leahy, district director of the group, were among the guests. Mrs. Ruth Porter served as entertainment chairman.

with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Keaton, 1654 Bowers, is Mrs. Keaton's mother, Mrs. Jeff R. Carey of Troy, O.

Melvin H. Romain, 1460 Hazel, in Grace Hospital, Detroit, for two weeks for special treatment, returned home March 7 and went back to work March 9.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hamilton, 1633 Bowers, over the weekend of March 6 were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wiggs, Toledo, O. Mrs. Wiggs, a friend of Mrs. Hamilton's from kindergarten through grade twelve, introduced the Hamiltons to each other one "beautiful day in Chicago" several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Fitzgerald, 1700 Torry, and their four children drove to Pittsburg recently to spend a weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Redder and family. The Redders, former residents of Birmingham, moved to Pittsburg last fall.

BOY SCOUTS in troop 1020 went on an all-day hike and cook-out at Holly Recreation Area March 7, leaving Torry school at 8 a.m. and returning at 4:38 p.m. Dads who drove the boys out and went on the hike were Robt. Flawinski, Louis M. Randall, Jr., and Leonard R. Colver.

Glenn Meine, a sixth grader, won the spelling bee at Torry School March 11. Runner-up was Suzanne Scheppner, who went down on "companionable." The champion then spelled correctly "companionable" and "exclamation."

Glenn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meine, 1276 S. Easton, will next compete with the best spellers in the district. The district champion goes to Washington, D. C., to try for the title, "Champion Speller of the U.S.A."
